RE: In Response to RFP 24-77468 Public Health and Healthcare Readiness Assessments

Dear Kevin March,

Bingle Research Group, Inc is pleased to provide this letter of commitment to participate as a subcontracting partner with Syra Health Corp in its response to the State of Indiana's Request for Proposal (RFP 24-77468 public Health and Healthcare Readiness Assessments).

Bingle Research Group will provide research, data collection, analysis and reporting services on the LHD and HCC evaluation surveys and other evaluation services, as needed. Bingle Research Group understands that there is no commitment for work by Syra Health Corp unless the RFP activity results in a contract award from the State of Indiana.

Should Syra Health sign a contract with the State of Indiana, Bingle Research Group will perform services beginning March 2024. The subcontract amount is $23,955.83 which represents 5.00% of the total contract.

1. Scope of Work for BRG and Bingle Research Group

a. Research and Data Collection Services (80141507, 80141511, 80141512): BRG will be engaged in consumer-based research, market research paper surveys, and on-location surveys. These activities will be fundamental in gathering valuable data for the LHD and HCC surveys.

b. Analysis and Reporting (80171501): BRG will conduct polling, survey analysis, and public opinion monitoring. This includes comprehensive analysis and reporting, providing critical insights into the collected data.

c. Stakeholder Outreach and Coalition Identification (80141507): Bingle Research Group will focus on stakeholder outreach and play a key role in identifying local healthcare coalitions in Indiana, essential for comprehensive research and data collection.

2. Process of Utilization:

Bingle Research Group will integrate its services with local healthcare entities in Indiana. This includes engaging with stakeholders for outreach and research purposes and identifying key healthcare coalitions to facilitate effective data collection and analysis.
