Indiana Department of Correction E-Squad Assists Senior Citizen With Housing Distress

Carlisle, Indiana - This week some members of the Wabash Valley Correctional Facility (WVCF) Emergency Squad took on a Helping Hands Mission! E-Squad members, on their own time, volunteered at the Breckenridge Commons Assisted Living Facility (Sullivan, Indiana) to help a damsel in distress! Resident Mary Loudermilk wanted to move from one apartment to another, to be closer to the nurses' station. Mary's son needed help and hiring movers can be expensive. Once E-Squad Field Commander Jonathon Hendrickson of Sullivan heard about her dilemma him and his merry band of volunteers plus Mary's son, did some heavy but gratifying lifting. WVCF Operations Assistant Superintendent Frank Littlejohn said, "Awesome job guys! It is great to see the team volunteer on something like this!" Superintendent Richard Brown added, "This was a very nice gesture and I am proud of you guys!!!!" The moving crew said they got in a good workout but more importantly gave someone in need some peace of mind.
