Madison Juvenile Correctional Facility to Host Open House

Madison, Indiana (September 16, 2010) – On Tuesday, September 21, 2010, Madison Juvenile Correctional Facility (MJCF) Superintendent Angela Sutton will welcome legislators, judicial representatives and media for an opportunity to tour the facility and obtain information concerning all of the exciting programming and volunteer experiences at Madison Juvenile Correctional Facility.

Madison Juvenile Correctional Facility provides a safe, supportive environment for committed female adolescents and encourages the development of responsible young women. MJCF is a maximum security juvenile correctional facility that has the ability to house 167 students but has a current population of 58 students. It is now the only female juvenile facility in the state of Indiana, and the only reception and diagnostic center, for newly committed female youths.

MJCF offers a number of groups that address the needs of its student population, including: Criminal and Addictive Thinking, Cage the Rage for Women, Voices, Healthy Relationships, Employability Skills, Substance Abuse, Relapse Prevention, Suicide Prevention, Grief and Loss and several others.
