"I am pleased to offer these challenging opportunities to staff within the Department of Correction. I am confident that Davis, Finnan and Royal have the background and expertise to make a difference in the Department. They bring high energy and focus to the work they do."

J. David Donahue,
Commissioner

Indianapolis, Indiana - (January 25, 2006) - Commissioner J. David Donahue announced today that he has appointed three superintendents to effectively manage Department of Correction facilities. Jan Davis has been appointed Superintendent of the Henryville Correctional Facility in Clark County; Alan Finnan has been appointed Superintendent of Wabash Correctional Facility in Sullivan County; and Terry Royal has been appointed Superintendent at Chain O' Lakes Correctional Facility in Noble County.

"I am pleased to offer these challenging opportunities to staff within the Department of Correction," said Commissioner J. David Donahue. "I am confident that Davis, Finnan and Royal have the background and expertise to make a difference in the Department. They bring high energy and focus to the work they do."

Jan Davis began her career with the Department of Correction at Edinburgh Correctional Facility in 1983. She has held the roles of business office manager, Correctional Counselor, Casework Manager and most recently, Administrative Assistant.

Ms. Davis holds Bachelor of General Studies with a concentration in Behavioral and Social Science from Indiana University.

Alan Finnan began his career with the department in 1992 at the Wabash Valley Correctional Facility as a Correctional Casework Manager. Mr. Finnan has held several roles in his 13 years with the Department, including Unit Team Manager of the Secured Housing Unit at the Wabash Valley Correctional Facility in Carlisle, Facility Security Threat Group Coordinator, Casework Manager and Chaplain.

Most recently, Alan served as Assistant Superintendent of Re-Entry at Pendleton Correctional Facility.

Mr. Finnan holds Bachelor of Arts from Palm Beach Atlantic University, FL. He also holds a Master's of Divinity, Master's of Theology and Doctor of Philosophy from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, KY.

Terry began his career with the Department in 1991 as a Correctional Officer at the Bloomington Work Release Center. His vast experience includes serving as Correctional Captain at Wabash Valley Correctional Facility, Correctional Team Manager at Putnamville Correctional Facility; Assistant Superintendent at North Central Juvenile and most recently, he held the position of Assistant Superintendent at Miami Correctional Facility.

Mr. Royal holds an Associates of Science in Corrections from Vincennes University and a Bachelors Degree in Organizational management from Oakland City University.

Davis, Finnan and Royal will assume their new responsibilities beginning January 29, 2006.
