ETHICS COMMISSION

NATURE OF BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP:

ISHA does not currently have a business relationship with the Indiana Speech-Language Pathology & Audiology Board, or the Indiana Professional Licensing Agency. It may at some point seek to form a business relationship with PLA or seek a decision from the Board, which Ms. Edens directs (but does not vote).

STATEMENT OF PUBLIC INTEREST:

The ISHA empowers "current and future audiology and speech-language pathology professionals to provide leadership in communication, swallowing, and hearing services while fostering inclusion, advocacy, networking, and interprofessional collaboration." It hosts an annual educational conference each year, where it issues awards to outstanding individuals in the speech and audiology field. Ms. Edens is receiving an award for her excellent work for the Indiana Speech-Language Pathology & Audiology Board. Allowing her to attend the awards lunch to accept the award benefits the agency by communicating PLA's good work to the public.
