

Emergency Farm Animal Management:

This class will cover farm animal's escape from roadway accidents, fairs, sale barns and private property. It will also cover basic animal behavior of various species and relate it to police actions that need to be taken. Scene situations will be discussed and actions needed to be taken including firearms selection and bullet placement if warranted.