

Commissioner's Open Provides Fun And Funds

Seventeen teams, comprised of 68 people, competed in the Commissioner's Open golf outing at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indianapolis on July 27. The outing raised approximately $1,000 for the Indiana State Transportation Workers Foundation. Thanks to all golfers, and a special thank you to Management Information Systems' Rose Dunlap and Peri Myers, who assisted at the event.

Commissioner Michael B. Cline (right) welcomes golfers to Commissioner's Open held at The Fort Golf Course and thanks them for their support and participation. Management Information Systems Highways Application Manager Mike Jenkins looks on. Jenkins and Audra Blasdel were co-organizers of the event.

The winning team this year is from the Greenfield District. This team beat 16 other teams with 16 below par. From left are: Construction Engineer Jason Deering, Materials & Tests Geologist Jon Paauwe, Construction Director Roland Fegan, and Human Resources Generalist Jeff Neuman with INDOT Commissioner Michael B. Cline.

Two teams tied for second place, tying at 15 below par. The first second-place team, from left: Indiana Finance Authority Special Advisor Steve Schultz, Deputy Commissioner-Capital Program Management Jim Stark, Seymour District Deputy Commissioner Kathy Eaton-McKalip and INDOT Commissioner Michael B. Cline.

Inside INDOT

www.in.gov/indot

The other team tying for second place, from left: Real Estate Relocation Manager Todd Clift, Real Estate Director Scott Adams, Real Estate Acquisition Manager Steve Penturf, and Employee Safety Director Lyle Sadler with INDOT Commissioner Michael B. Cline.

This Crawfordsville District team did not place, but had a great time on the links. From left: Technical Services Director Joe Lewien, retired Traffic Signal Supervisor Terry Gowin, Frankfort Subdistrict Administrative Assistant Amy Gregory and Technical Services Systems Assessment Manager Bob Montgomery.

This Seymour District foursome enjoyed teaming up at the Commissioner's Open. From left: Technical Services Special Projects Engineer James Ude, Permits Program Director Travis Mankin, Capital Program Management Director Nathan Frey and Construction Highway Technician Wilbur Capes.