Fresh ingredients for a healthy retirement

Powerful ingredients to create a well-rounded retirement

TRF's lineup of investment funds for Annuity Savings Accounts (ASAs) provides members greater control in saving for their retirement futures.

Daily valuation allows members to manage their Annuity Savings Account (ASA) investments on a daily basis rather than quarterly. And, for the first time ever, members can allocate their current ASA balance to new fund options and direct future contributions to a completely different asset allocation.

If you are a new member and did not make an election when you were hired, your ASA balance election defaults to a target date fund based on your estimated retirement date. If you made an election upon hire and have not revisited this election, take the opportunity to learn about the ASA options available to you. For detailed information on each of these funds, please visit our Web site.

For more information on investing your ASA, log on to TRF's online demo to receive tips on preparing for retirement. The demo is intended as a brief tutorial offered for educational purposes.* You can access the demo by going to <http://www.in.gov/inprs/retirementmarket.htm> and selecting the link under Online Demonstration.
