

CENTER FOR COURT INNOVATION

Domestic Violence Programs

National Domestic Violence Court Technical Assistance Webinar Series

TOPIC: Court Interpretation for Victims
Considerations when providing interpretation services to victims and survivors

DATE: Wednesday, April 1, 2015

TIME: 3:00-4:30 p.m. EST

Please join us for a webinar on how victims' experiences with domestic violence and/or sexual assault may effect how court interpretation services should be provided. Webinar participants will learn how to identify issues that may arise when providing interpreters to victims and how to address problems with interpretation. The webinar will also discuss recommended practices when providing interpretation services to victims. The discussion will be aimed at court staff, though attorneys and other stakeholders are welcome to join.

FACULTY:

Cannon Han, Project Coordinator, Interpretation Technical Assistance and Resource Center, Asian & Pacific Islander Institute on Domestic Violence.

PARTICIPANT ELIGIBILITY:

This webinar was created for OVW Justice for Families Program/Courts Project and GTEAP grantees, but is open to the public.

REGISTRATION AND ACCESS:

Please register here: <https://courtinnovation.ilinc.com/register/shkrhhy>. You will receive an email with information about how to access the webinar and audio portion, and we will send reminders and materials as the event approaches. Please contact Sarah Martino (martinos@courtinnovation.org) if you have any questions. We strive to make our work accessible for all participants. Please let us know at least five business days in advance of the webinar if you require closed captioning or materials in large print. Access needs and any questions regarding other possible accommodations should be emailed to martinos@courtinnovation.org.

This project was supported by Award No. 2014-TA-AX-K019 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women. The opinions, findings, or recommendations expressed in this webinar are those of the presenters and do not necessarily reflect the view of the Department of Justice.