WC-2014-13

Works Council Communication Flyer – Dana Carter:

Region 7 Works Council has developed a presentation and handout to explain the goals and initiatives for the Indiana Works Councils. Dana will forward the information to all members.

Patoka Valley and Perry County (PVPC) Grant:

Glenn Weil gave a brief update on the PVPC grant. 18 teachers from four high school attended the kickoff. Sue Habig and Matt Weinzapfel presented on the Works Council and Glenn explained the grant initiative.

WEHT / Marketing Campaign Grant:

Jim Heck gave an update on the progress of the marketing campaign with WEHT. The first vignette has been completed with Barton Automotive in Posey County. The group was shown the video. Other vignettes are in the process with Jasper Engines and Vectren. The videos will be shown each month on WEHT and WTVW newscasts and throughout the day. The videos will be posted on www.tristatehomepage.com/WorkOne with other workforce data. WEHT plans to produce two to three vignettes per quarter. All the videos will be available for use at schools, businesses, and other organizations.

The council discussed the first vignette and gave suggestions for future vignettes, such as; parents and students need to know where the pathways begin at the secondary level and adding employability skills.

Community Education Coalition (CEC) – John Burnett / Jack Hess:

The Community Education Coalition out of Columbus IN is currently working with other communities to help grow and cultivate collaboration. John informed the Council on the background of CEC and the Columbus Learning Center. Jack explained the practice of community collaboration, solving connections collaboratively, and how to create a process to cultivate relationships and outcomes. The Council discussed the process and how it would help manage the regional projects. Bob Stemple suggested to contract with the Community Education Coalition to help walk through the process on one project. The Works Council will select a project at the next meeting.

Next Meeting:

The next meeting was set for September 29 at SICTC, but the Council decided to move the meeting to October 3 at 10:30am CT at VU- Ft Branch Campus following the Workforce Investment Board Annual Meeting. Angie will secure a meeting room and send a calendar invite to all members.

Public Comment:

None

Dan Ulrich motioned to adjourn the meeting at 3:06 p.m. Central Time. Laurel Smith seconded. Motion passed.
