FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Indiana Land Resources Council meeting

INDIANAPOLIS (April 6, 2017) – The Indiana Land Resources Council (ILRC) will hold a public meeting on April 10, 2017 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at Indiana Government Center South (302 W. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46204) in conference room 2.

The ILRC was created in state law (I.C. 15-12-5) to assist local and state decision-makers with land use tools and policies. The ILRC is composed of representatives from county and municipal governments, home building and land development, business, environmental interests, soil and water conservation districts, and forestry, as well as a land use expert and a farmer. The ILRC's mission is to evaluate all types of land use.

ABOUT ISDA

The Indiana State Department of Agriculture (ISDA) was established as a separate state agency by the Legislature in 2005. The Director is appointed by the Governor and is a member of the Governor's Cabinet. Administratively, ISDA reports to Lt. Governor Suzanne Crouch, who also serves as Indiana's Secretary of Agriculture and Rural Development. Major responsibilities include advocacy for Indiana agriculture at the local, state and federal level, managing soil conservation programs, promoting economic development and agricultural innovation, serving as a regulatory ombudsman for agricultural businesses, and licensing grain firms throughout the state.
