

Indiana State Department of Health

INDOOR & RADIOLOGICAL HEALTH
2525 N. Shadeland Ave., E-3, Indianapolis, IN 46219

REPORTING OF RADIATION INCIDENTS

Incidents * involving radioactive materials or radiation producing devices shall be reported to the Indiana State Department of Health, Indoor and Radiological Health Division at one of the following numbers:

|                          |                               |   |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------|---|
| PRIMARY CONTACTS: | 317/351-7190, ext 261  | DIVISION MANAGER                              |
|                          | 317/351-7190, ext. 257 | RADIATION EMERGENCY RESPONSE PROGRAM DIRECTOR |
|                          | 317/351-7190, ext. 259 | RADIATION EMERGENCY RESPONSE SPECIALIST       |
|                          | 317/351-7190, ext. 258 | RADIATION EMERGENCY RESPONSE SPECIALIST       |
| AFTER HOURS:      | 317/233-1325           | SAY "RADIATION EMERGENCY"                     |
|                          | 317/351-2679           | TELEFAX                                       |

TO REPORT OTHER HAZARDOUS MATERIALS EMERGENCIES, PLEASE CALL:

|  |  |
|--|--|
| SECONDARY CONTACTS: 317/233-7745 (SPIL)(24 HOUR NUMBERS) | INDIANA DEPT. OF ENV. MGT.EMERGENCY SPILL HOTLINE            |
| 317/233-6611  | INDIANA DEPT. HOMELAND SECURITYST. FIRE MARSHALL HAZMAT TEAM |

*Incidents include, but are not limited to, theft or loss of radioactive materials or devices; damaged or leaking packages or devices; transportation accidents; fires or explosions that impact radiation sources; radiation monitor alarms at scrap, solid waste, and recycling facilities; overexposures; misadministration's.