Indiana Statehouse and Government Center Security Policies

Effective January 1, 2012

- Hours of Operation

The Indiana Statehouse and Government Center are open Monday through Friday from 7:30 AM to 5:00 PM (except for scheduled State holidays).

During the legislative session, the Statehouse may remain open after 5:00 PM on those days when one or both of the legislative bodies are in session.

- Occupancy Limits

The State Fire Marshal is granted authority to manage the occupancy load of the buildings.

- Statehouse Floor Restrictions

In order to comply with State fire code occupancy limits, assembly will occur in official meeting rooms, offices, or other pre-designated areas as established by Indiana Department of Administration. No congregation in hallways will be permitted which might interfere with pedestrian flow, entry and exit from offices or meeting rooms, or emergency ingress/egress.

Stairways will be kept clear for pedestrian traffic and emergency egress. Free public Wi-Fi access is available in the Statehouse and Indiana Government Center for visitors to view broadcasts of legislative activities or gather information from State agency websites.

- Statehouse and Government Center Entry Points

The east Statehouse entry door (Capitol Avenue side) has been designated as the primary entry control point for any public access.

The lower level west Statehouse entry door (Senate Avenue side) has been designated as the ADA accessible public entry control point and for members of the non-credentialed media or other pre-scheduled visitors or pre-scheduled tours of the Statehouse.

Indiana State Police and Indiana Department of Administration personnel will provide security screening for persons and packages entering the building. Exterior steps at all Statehouse doors should remain clear for emergency egress. Access through other entry doors will be limited to credentialed or emergency personnel only. Anyone may exit at any of these doors.

Public access to Government Center North is from Robert Orr Plaza and to Government Center South from Washington Street.

- Robert Orr Plaza Access

The Indiana State Police may implement a restricted vehicular traffic pattern on Robert Orr Plaza and adjacent Senate Avenue. During the 2012 legislative session, as has been done on occasion in previous years, Senate Avenue will be designated as one-way north. The southern portion of Senate Avenue will be designated for media-only parking however, entrance onto Senate Avenue will occur from Washington Street. Traffic entering Orr Plaza from West Street will U-Turn just past the divider and will also exit at West Street.

Effective January 1, 2012

- Exterior Assembly and Gathering Areas

The south Statehouse lawn has been designated as the exterior assembly and gathering area. The south steps of the Statehouse and adjacent sidewalks are to be kept clear for emergency egress. An additional area for assemblies and gatherings may be designated by the Indiana Department of Administration if the south lawn is not large enough to accommodate an assembly. Gathering and assembly areas elsewhere on the Statehouse grounds may be authorized by the Indiana Department of Administration and Indiana State Police upon approval of the required application and issuance of a permit as long as state fire code restrictions are observed.

- Code of Conduct

A Code of Conduct for the Indiana Statehouse and Government Center has been established by policy of the Commissioner for the Indiana Department of Administration. Persons entering the Government Center and/or Statehouse will be held to these standards. To ensure that everyone has a safe and enjoyable visit to the government campus, we ask that you adhere to these guidelines.
