APPLICATION OF TARIFF

The definitions specified herein apply to the Intrastate service and facilities furnished in Indiana by CenturyTel of Central Indiana, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the Telephone Company. This Tariff cancels and supersedes all other Exchange Service Tariffs or Definitions of the Telephone Company excepting Message Toll Tariffs and Interexchange Private Line Tariffs issued and effective prior to the effective date of this Tariff.

Nothing in these Tariffs shall be construed to take precedence over the Rules and Standards of Service for Telephone Utilities of Indiana adopted and enforced by the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission. In the event a conflict arises between these Tariffs and the Rules of Standards of Service, the Rules and Standards of Service will prevail.

DEFINITIONS

TELEPHONE STATION:

A telephone instrument, consisting of a transmitter, receiver, and associated apparatus, so connected as to permit transmitting and receiving telephone messages.

1. Company Station - A station owned by the Telephone Company, receiving service from and through central office equipment and lines normally owned, maintained and operated by the Telephone Company, and provided as a part of the Telephone Company's service function. Service stations are not included under this classification.
 - a. Main Station - A Company station directly connected by means of an individual line or party line with a central office.
 - b. Extension Station - An additional Company station connected on the same circuit as the main station and having the same telephone number as the main station.
 - c. PBX Station - Any Company station connected with a PBX system within the same local exchange service area.
 - d. Toll Terminal - A Company station, or a terminal on a PBX switchboard, and the associated exchange circuit connecting the station or terminal directly with a toll switchboard. (Also known as Long Distance Terminal).

TOLL MESSAGE:

A message from a calling station to a station located in a different local service area for which a message charge is made.
