PUBLISHED ORDER REINSTATING JAMES R. KILBURN TO THE PRACTICE OF LAW

On December 29, 2010, the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission filed a "Petition for Suspension of Certain Attorneys for Failure to Satisfy Costs Ordered in Connection with Lawyer Discipline Proceedings," asserting each of the Respondents failed to pay costs assessed in a disciplinary action by the due date of the attorney's annual registration fee (October 1), in violation of the requirements of Indiana Admission and Discipline Rules 23(10)(f)(5), 23(16), and (2)(b).

On March 10, 2011, this Court entered an order suspending from the practice of law in Indiana several attorneys, including James R. Kilburn, effective ten days after the order was entered. James R. Kilburn now file a petition for reinstatement, reporting that he has paid in full the amount owed in unpaid costs and the $200 reinstatement fee owed under Admission and Discipline Rule 23(16). The Commission has no objection to reinstatement.

Being duly advised, the Court GRANTS the petition and REINSTATES James R. Kilburn to the practice of law in Indiana effective immediately.

The Court directs the Clerk to forward a copy of this Order to James R. Kilburn or his attorney, to the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission, and to all other entities entitled to notice under Admission and Discipline Rule 23(3)(d). The Clerk is further directed to post this order to the Court's website, and Thomson Reuters is directed to publish a copy of this order in the bound volumes of this Court's decisions.

Done at Indianapolis, Indiana, this 21st day of March, 2011.
