 22 section shall discriminate, within any establishment in which 23 employees are employed, between employees on the basis of sex by 24 paying to employees in such establishment a rate less than the rate at 25 which he pays wages to employees of the opposite sex in such 26 establishment for equal work on jobs the performance of which 27 requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and which are performed
 28 under similar working conditions, except where such payment is made 29 pursuant to:

30 (1) a seniority system;

31 (2) a merit system;

32 (3) a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of 33 production; or

34 (4) a differential based on any other factor other than sex.

35 (e) An employer who is paying a wage rate differential in violation
 36 of subsection (d) shall not, in order to comply with subsection (d), 37 reduce the wage rate of any employee, and no labor organization, or its 38 agents, representing employees of an employer having employees
 39 subject to subsection (d) shall cause or attempt to cause such an 40 employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of 41 subsection (d).

42 (f) Except as provided in subsection (c), every employer employing

1 at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week
 2 in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the 3 employees in any work week beginning on or after October 1, 1998,
 4 and before March 1, 1999, wages of not less than four dollars and 5 twenty-five cents ($4.25) per hour.

6 (g) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (i), every employer
 7 employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any 8 work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each
 9 of the employees in any work week beginning on or after March 1, 10 1999, wages of not less than five dollars and fifteen cents ($5.15) an 11 hour.

12 (h) This section does not apply if an employee:

13 (1) provides companionship services to the aged and infirm (as

 17 CFR 552.109 (a).

18 (i) This subsection applies only to an employee who has not attained
 19 the age of twenty (20) years. Instead of the rates prescribed by 20 subsections (c), (f), and (g), an employer may pay an employee of the 21 employer, during the first ninety (90) consecutive calendar days after 22 the employee is initially employed by the employer, a wage which is 23 not less than four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per hour,
 24 effective March 1, 1999. However, no employer may take any action 25 to displace employees (including partial displacements such as 26 reduction in hours, wages, or employment benefits) for purposes of 27 hiring individuals at the wage authorized in this subsection.

28 (j) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no employer shall 29 employ any employee for a workweek longer than forty (40) hours
 30 unless the employee receives compensation for employment in excess
 31 of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half 32 (1.5) times the regular rate at which he is employed.

33 (k) For purposes of this section the following apply:

34 (1) "Overtime compensation" means the compensation required
 35 by subsection (j).

36 (2) "Compensatory time" and "compensatory time off" mean
 37 hours during which an employee is not working, which are not 38 counted as hours worked during the applicable workweek or other 39 work period for purposes of overtime compensation, and for 40 which the employee is compensated at the employee's regular 41 rate.

42 (3) "Regular rate" means the rate at which an employee is

4 (A) Sums paid as gifts, payments in the nature of gifts made at 5 Christmas time or on other special occasions, as a reward for 6 service, the amounts of which are not measured by or 7 dependent on hours worked, production, or efficiency.

8 (B) Payments made for occasional periods when no work is 9 performed due to vacation, holiday, illness, failure of the 10 employer to provide sufficient work, or other similar cause,
 11 reasonable payments for traveling expenses, or other expenses,
 12 incurred by an employee in the furtherance of his employer's
 13 interests and properly reimbursable by the employer, and other 14 similar payments to an employee which are not made as 15 compensation for his hours of employment.

16 (C) Sums paid in recognition of services performed during a 17 given period if:

18 (i) both the fact that payment is to be made and the amount
 19 of the payment are determined at the sole discretion of the 20 employer at or near the end of the period and not pursuant 21 to any prior contract, agreement, or promise causing the 22 employee to expect the payments regularly;

23 (ii) the payments are made pursuant to a bona fide profit
 24 sharing plan or trust or bona fide thrift or savings plan,
 25 meeting the requirements of the administrator set forth in 26 appropriately issued regulations, having due regard among 27 other relevant factors, to the extent to which the amounts
 28 paid to the employee are determined without regard to hours
 29 of work, production, or efficiency; or

30 (iii) the payments are talent fees paid to performers,
 31 including announcers, on radio and television programs.

32 (D) Contributions irrevocably made by an employer to a
 33 trustee or third person pursuant to a bona fide plan for 34 providing old age, retirement, life, accident, or health
 35 insurance or similar benefits for employees.

36 (E) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid for 37 certain hours worked by the employee in any day or workweek

 39 a day or in excess of the maximum workweek applicable to the 40 employee under subsection (h) or in excess of the employee's
 41 normal working hours or regular working hours, as the case
 42 may be.

6           employee is employed pursuant to a bona fide individual contract, or 7           pursuant to an agreement made as a result of collective bargaining by

10          following:

11           (1) Specifies a regular rate of pay of not less than the minimum 12           hourly rate provided in subsections (c), (f), (g), and (i) (whichever 13           is applicable) and compensation at not less than one and one-half

15           maximum workweek.

16           (2) Provides a weekly guaranty of pay for not more than sixty

"SECTION 4. IC 22-2-2-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999]: Sec. 4. (a) Every employer employing four (4) or more employees during a work week shall:

(1) in any work week beginning on or after July 1, 1968, in which he is subject to the provisions of this chapter, pay each of his employees wages of not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) per hour;

(3) in any work week beginning on or after January 1, 1978, in which he is subject to this chapter, pay each of his employees wages of not less than one dollar and seventy-five cents ($1.75) per hour; and

(4) in any work week beginning on or after January 1, 1979, in which he is subject to this chapter, pay each of his employees wages of not less than two dollars ($2) per hour.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on and after July 1, 1990, and before October 1, 1998, wages of not less than three dollars and thirty-five cents ($3.35) per hour.

(c) An employer subject to subsection (b) is permitted to apply a "tip credit" in determining the amount of cash wage paid to tipped employees. In determining the wage an employer is required to pay a tipped employee, the amount paid the employee by the employee's employer shall be an amount equal to:

(1) the cash wage paid the employee which for purposes of the determination shall be not less than the cash wage required to be paid to employees covered under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 U.S.C. 210(m)(1)) on August 20, 1996, which amount is two dollars and thirteen cents ($2.13) an hour; and

(2) an additional amount on account of the tips received by the employee, which amount is equal to the difference between the wage specified in subdivision (1) and the wage in effect under subsections (b), (f), and (g).

An employer is responsible for supporting the amount of tip credit taken through reported tips by the employees.

(d) No employer having employees subject to any provisions of this section shall discriminate, within any establishment in which employees are employed, between employees on the basis of sex by paying to employees in such establishment a rate less than the rate at which he pays wages to employees of the opposite sex in such establishment for equal work on jobs the performance of which requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and which are performed under similar working conditions, except where such payment is made pursuant to:

- (1) a seniority system;
- (2) a merit system;
- (3) a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production; or
- (4) a differential based on any other factor other than sex.

(e) An employer who is paying a wage rate differential in violation of subsection (d) shall not, in order to comply with subsection (d), reduce the wage rate of any employee, and no labor organization, or its agents, representing employees of an employer having employees subject to subsection (d) shall cause or attempt to cause such an employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of subsection (d).

(f) Except as provided in subsection (c), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after October 1, 1998, and before March 1, 1999, wages of not less than four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per hour.

(g) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (i), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after March 1,

1999, wages of not less than five dollars and fifteen cents ($5.15) an hour.

(h) This section does not apply if an employee:

- (1) provides companionship services to the aged and infirm (as defined in 29 CFR 552.6); and
- (2) is employed by an employer or agency other than the family or household using the companionship services, as provided in 29 CFR 552.109 (a).

(i) This subsection applies only to an employee who has not attained the age of twenty (20) years. Instead of the rates prescribed by subsections (c), (f), and (g), an employer may pay an employee of the employer, during the first ninety (90) consecutive calendar days after the employee is initially employed by the employer, a wage which is not less than four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per hour, effective March 1, 1999. However, no employer may take any action to displace employees (including partial displacements such as reduction in hours, wages, or employment benefits) for purposes of hiring individuals at the wage authorized in this subsection.

(j) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no employer shall employ any employee for a workweek longer than forty (40) hours unless the employee receives compensation for employment in excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate at which he is employed.

(k) For purposes of this section the following apply:

- (1) "Overtime compensation" means the compensation required by subsection (j).
- (2) "Compensatory time" and "compensatory time off" mean hours during which an employee is not working, which are not counted as hours worked during the applicable workweek or other work period for purposes of overtime compensation, and for which the employee is compensated at the employee's regular rate.
- (3) "Regular rate" means the rate at which an employee is employed is considered to include all remuneration for employment paid to, or on behalf of, the employee, but is not considered to include the following:
  - (A) Sums paid as gifts, payments in the nature of gifts made at Christmas time or on other special occasions, as a reward for service, the amounts of which are not measured by or dependent on hours worked, production, or efficiency.
  - (B) Payments made for occasional periods when no work is performed due to vacation, holiday, illness, failure of the employer to provide sufficient work, or other similar cause, reasonable payments for traveling expenses, or other expenses, incurred by an employee in the furtherance of his employer's interests and properly reimbursable by the employer, and other similar payments to an employee which are not made as compensation for his hours of employment.

(C) Sums paid in recognition of services performed during a given period if:

(i) both the fact that payment is to be made and the amount of the payment are determined at the sole discretion of the employer at or near the end of the period and not pursuant to any prior contract, agreement, or promise causing the employee to expect the payments regularly;

(ii) the payments are made pursuant to a bona fide profit sharing plan or trust or bona fide thrift or savings plan, meeting the requirements of the administrator set forth in appropriately issued regulations, having due regard among other relevant factors, to the extent to which the amounts paid to the employee are determined without regard to hours of work, production, or efficiency; or

(iii) the payments are talent fees paid to performers, including announcers, on radio and television programs.

(D) Contributions irrevocably made by an employer to a trustee or third person pursuant to a bona fide plan for providing old age, retirement, life, accident, or health insurance or similar benefits for employees.

(E) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid for certain hours worked by the employee in any day or workweek because those hours are hours worked in excess of eight (8) in a day or in excess of the maximum workweek applicable to the employee under subsection (h) or in excess of the employee's normal working hours or regular working hours, as the case may be.

(F) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid for work by the employee on Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, or regular days of rest, or on the sixth or seventh day of the workweek, where the premium rate is not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the rate established in good faith for like work performed in nonovertime hours on other days.

(G) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid to the employee, in pursuance of an applicable employment contract or collective bargaining agreement, for work outside of the hours established in good faith by the contract or agreement as the basic, normal, or regular workday (not exceeding eight hours) or workweek (not exceeding the maximum workweek applicable to the employee under subsection (a)) where the premium rate is not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the rate established in good faith by the contract or agreement for like work performed during the workday or workweek.

(l) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (j) by employing any employee for a workweek in excess of that specified in subsection (a) without paying the compensation for overtime employment prescribed therein if the employee is so employed:

(1) in pursuance of an agreement, made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees certified as bona fide by the National Labor Relations Board, which provides that no employee shall be employed more than one thousand forty (1,040) hours during any period of twenty-six (26) consecutive weeks; or
 (2) in pursuance of an agreement, made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees certified as bona fide by the National Labor Relations Board, which provides that during a specified period of fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks the employee shall be employed not more than two thousand two hundred forty (2,240) hours and shall be guaranteed not less than one thousand eight hundred forty (1,840) hours (or not less than forty-six (46) weeks at the normal number of hours worked per week, but not less than thirty (30) hours per week) and not more than two thousand eighty (2,080) hours of employment for which the employee shall receive compensation for all hours guaranteed or worked at rates not less than those applicable under the agreement to the work performed and for all hours in excess of the guaranty which are also in excess of the maximum workweek applicable to the employee under subsection (a) or two thousand eighty (2,080) in that period at rates not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate at which the employee is employed. ⚭

(m) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (j) by employing any employee for a workweek in excess of the maximum workweek applicable to the employee under subsection (a) if the employee is employed pursuant to a bona fide individual contract, or pursuant to an agreement made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees, if the duties of the employee necessitate irregular hours of work, and the contract or agreement includes the following:

(1) Specifies a regular rate of pay of not less than the minimum hourly rate provided in subsections (c), (f), (g), and (i) (whichever is applicable) and compensation at not less than one and one-half (1.5) times that rate for all hours worked in excess of the maximum workweek.

(2) Provides a weekly guaranty of pay for not more than sixty hours based on the rates so specified.

(n) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (j) by employing any employee for a workweek in excess of the maximum workweek applicable to the employee under that subsection if, pursuant to an agreement or understanding arrived at between the employer and the employee before performance of the work, the amount paid to the employee for the number of hours worked by him in the workweek in excess of the maximum workweek applicable to the employee under that subsection:

(1) in the case of an employee employed at piece rates, is computed at piece rates not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the bona fide piece rates; applicable to the same work when performed during nonovertime hours; ~~or~~

(2) in the case of an employee performing two (2) or more kinds of work for which different hourly or piece rates have been established, is computed at rates not less than one and one-half (1.5) times those bona fide rates; applicable to the same work when performed during nonovertime hours; or

(3) is computed at a rate not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the rate established by the agreement or understanding as the basic rate to be used in computing overtime compensation thereunder, provided that the rate so established shall be substantially equivalent to the average hourly earnings of the employee, exclusive of overtime premiums, in the particular work over a representative period of time; and if the employee's average hourly earnings for the workweek exclusive of payments described in this section are not less than the minimum hourly rate required by applicable law, and extra overtime compensation is properly computed and paid on other forms of additional pay required to be included in computing the regular rate.

(o) Extra compensation paid as described in this section shall be creditable toward overtime compensation payable pursuant to this section.

(p) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (j) by employing any employee of a retail or service establishment for a

- (1) the regular rate of pay of the employee is in excess of one and one-half (1.5) times the minimum hourly rate applicable to the employee under section 2 of this chapter; and
- (2) more than half of the employee's compensation for a representative period (not less than one (1) month) represents commissions on goods or services.

In determining the proportion of compensation representing commissions, all earnings resulting from the application of a bona fide commission rate shall be considered commissions on goods or services without regard to whether the computed commissions exceed the draw or guarantee.

(q) No employer engaged in the operation of a hospital or an establishment which is an institution primarily engaged in the care of the sick, the aged, or the mentally ill or defective who reside on the premises shall be considered to have violated subsection (j) if, pursuant to an agreement or understanding arrived at between the employer and the employee before performance of the work, a work period of fourteen (14) consecutive days is accepted in lieu of the workweek of seven (7) consecutive days for purposes of overtime computation and if, for his employment in excess of eight (8) hours in any workday and in excess of eighty (80) hours in that fourteen (14) day period, the employee receives compensation at a rate not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate at which the employee is employed.
