Summary of Legislation: (Amended) A mayor is allowed to perform marriages with the mayor's county.

This bill requires that the appropriations made for the salaries of attorneys and legal research assistants employed by a clerk or clerk-treasurer must be allocated to the clerk or clerk-treasurer.

This bill provides that a clerk-treasurer is an ex-officio member of the town legislative body for the purpose of tie-breaking.

An obsolete reference to a state agency public purchasing statute in municipal sewage law is eliminated by this bill. (Current municipal sewage law refers to a public purchasing statute that was repealed for local governments by P.L.57-1981.)

The town executive is required to have the approval of the town board before discharging or removing a town employee.

Effective Date: (Amended) Upon passage; July 1, 1999.
