Summary of Legislation: This bill requires the Commission on Aging to be composed of 16 lay members appointed by the Governor, two Senators appointed by the President Pro Tempore, and two Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House. The bill provides that the term of a lay member is four years. It allows legislative members of the Commission to receive the same per diem, mileage, and travel allowances as members of the General Assembly serving on interim study committees established by the Legislative Council. (Current law states that the Commission consists of 16 members appointed by the Governor.)

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill adds four Legislators to the Commission on Aging, two Senate members and two members from the House of Representatives. The bill also states that the legislators are to receive the same travel and per diem reimbursement as legislators serving on interim study committees. The travel reimbursement and per diem expenses will be paid for from the Legislative Services Agency budget. The Commission meets on average eight times a year.
