 FEDERAL

IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill has the following provisions:

- (A) A certificate of qualification for a contractor or a person performing professional services on a state public works project expires 27 months after the date of issuance. (Under current law, a certificate expires 15 months after issuance.);
- (B) A person that holds a certificate of qualification is to notify the Certification Board of any material changes in information supplied in the application submitted to the Board;
- (C) Energy cost savings contracts entered into by the state are to be administered by the Indiana Department of Administration rather than the state agencies that occupy the facilities that benefit from the contracts;
- (D) Repeals superseded energy efficiency contract statutes.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) (A) Currently, a certificate of qualification for a contractor or a person performing professional services on a state public works project expires 15 months after issuance. This bill extends the expiration to 27 months after the date of issuance. The fiscal impact of this provision is indeterminable but there would be a reduction in administrative expenses.

(B), (C), and (D) These provisions have no fiscal impact.
