Summary of Legislation: This bill appropriates $5,544,159 from the State General Fund to the Indiana Arts Commission to provide program and service grants to arts providers.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) This bill appropriates annually to the Indiana Arts Commission $5,544,159 from the State General Fund to provide program and service grants to arts providers. The amount of the appropriation was calculated based on Indiana's population so that $1 would be appropriated to the Arts Commission for each Indiana resident.

As a point of information, for fiscal year 1999 the Commission received an appropriation from the General Fund of $3.09 million. Of this total, $2.645 million was distributed in grants. (The remainder was used for administration and publications.)

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures:

Explanation of Local Revenues: Local units of government can and do qualify for grants. The amount of revenue that the local units will receive will depend on the number and nature of applications submitted by the local units.

State Agencies Affected: The Indiana Arts Commission.

Local Agencies Affected: Local units that apply for arts grants.
