Summary of Legislation: This bill requires a member of the county executive body and a member of the county fiscal body of St. Joseph County to be appointed to the area plan commission.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Under the provisions of this bill, a member of the St. Joseph County's executive body and the fiscal body are required to be appointed to the area plan commission. The St. Joseph County Plan Commission has 15 members. This bill increases the membership by two for a total of 17 members. Statute provides that county executive and fiscal body members are entitled to receive mileage and compensation incurred in performing the duties of the plan commission. The addition of two members to the St. Joseph County Plan Commission would minimally increase expenditures for St. Joseph County.
