Summary of Legislation: This bill corrects a reference to the Indiana Administrative Code in order to cite the current rule on Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages by certain retailers. It provides that the Alcoholic Beverage Commission may not issue a beer retailer's permit to a person who, within ten years before the date of application, has been convicted of certain federal or state crimes. It also provides that the holder of an alcoholic beverages club permit may keep a guest book listing members and their nonmember guests, except on designated guest days.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.
