

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 11

Introduced by Representatives: P. Eric Turner and Dean Young

Sponsored by Senators: David C. Ford, Harold H. "Potch" Wheeler and Luke Kenley

Adopted by voice vote in the House on January 21, 1999, during the First Regular Session of the 111th General Assembly

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the tremendous accomplishments of Wayne and Kim Seybold.

- WHEREAS, Wayne and Kim are both very special individuals who exemplified true amateur sportsmanship and dedication as they represented not only the State of Indiana, but the United States of America, at the 1988 Winter Olympics in the pairs figure skating competition;
- WHEREAS, The perseverance, in difficult times and financial troubles, that Wayne and Kim showed everyone truly can never be etched out of the memory of Hoosiers across Indiana;
- WHEREAS, Wayne and Kim, were and continue to be two of the premier figure skaters in the world;
- WHEREAS, The Seybolds were able to continue their skating careers only through their hard work, the personal sacrifices made by their parents, John and Jean Seybold, and the tremendous generosity of the community;
- WHEREAS, Community support and outreach from those Wayne and Kim knew, as well as those whom they never met, truly exemplified Hoosier hospitality;
- WHEREAS, Wayne and Kim truly understand the importance and the tremendous need of a helping hand from neighbors, and strangers, and now work tirelessly at giving back to their State, which to this day remains very proud of their accomplishments;
- WHEREAS, Wayne continues to serve the State of Indiana, and the Marion community, by marketing special events and shows through his business - the Seybold Group - as well as his position on the Park Board and the Board of Directors of the Grant County Family YMCA;
- WHEREAS, Kim has continued to give back to the State of Indiana by teaching figure skating in Carmel, Indiana; and
- WHEREAS, The Olympic memories that both Wayne and Kim experienced will forever remain in their minds as well as the hearts of each and every Hoosier who witnessed their breathtaking routine, either in person or on television:

THEREFORE, *Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- SECTION 1. The Indiana General Assembly wishes to recognize the outstanding accomplishments of Wayne and Kim and the outstanding manner in which they have been role models and community leaders to the City of Marion, Grant County, and all citizens of the State of Indiana.
- SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Wayne Seybold and Kim Seybold.
