Sec. 1. After the proposed plan of conversion and amendment to the converting mutual's articles of incorporation are approved by the commissioner and the members under this article, the converting mutual may proceed to consummate the plan and comply with IC 27-1-8.

Sec. 2. The plan of conversion and the amendment to the articles of incorporation of the converting mutual become effective upon the date and time of approval of the articles of amendment by the secretary of state as provided in IC 27-1-8-8, unless a later date and time is specified in the articles of amendment, in which event the plan of conversion and amendment become effective and take place at the later date and time.

Sec. 3. When the plan of conversion and the amendment to the articles of incorporation of the converting mutual become effective:

- (1) the converting mutual shall:

5 Chapter 7. Confidential Records

6 Sec. 1. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, 7 IC 5-14 applies to all filings made under this article.

8 Sec. 2. Filings, information, and documents made with or 9 provided to the commissioner under this article may include 10 information that might be damaging to a converting mutual or its 11 affiliates if made available to competitors. Subject to section 3 of 12 this chapter, all information, documents, and copies of documents 13 containing trade secrets of a converting mutual or its affiliates and 14 marked "confidential" by the converting mutual:

- 15 (1) are declared confidential for purposes of IC 5-14-3-4;
- 16 (2) are not subject to inspection and copying by the public 17 under IC 5-14-3-3;
- 18 (3) may be disclosed by the commissioner to the department
 19 of insurance of another state if that department of insurance 20 agrees to keep the information confidential; and
- 21 (4) may not be disclosed by the commissioner to any person
 22 other than a department of insurance under subdivision (3)
 23 without the written consent of the converting mutual.

24 Sec. 3. (a) Subject to subsection (c), the commissioner may 25 disclose all or part of any confidential document in the 26 commissioner's possession as the result of an application filed 27 under this article if the following conditions are met:

- 28 (1) The commissioner must give notice of the proposed 29 disclosure to the converting mutual and any other person 30 requesting disclosure.
- 31 (2) The converting mutual must be given an opportunity in 32 private to respond to the proposed disclosure.
- 33 (3) The commissioner must give consideration to any 34 legitimate interest in preserving trade secrets.
- 35 (4) The commissioner must determine that the eligible
 36 members or other policyholders have a compelling interest 37 which would be served by disclosure.
- 38 (5) At least five (5) business days have elapsed from the 39 converting mutual's receipt of written notice.

40 (b) The commissioner may disclose information under 41 subsection (a) in a manner and subject to limitations as the 42 commissioner considers appropriate.

(c) If:

- (1) not more than six (6) business days have elapsed since the converting mutual received notice of a proposed disclosure; and
- (2) the converting mutual has notified the commissioner that it or another interested party has filed an action seeking a protective order from a circuit or superior court to prevent or to limit disclosure;

the commissioner may not disclose the information, documents, or copies of documents during the pendency of the action and any appeal or after any final court decision prohibiting disclosure.

Chapter 8. Distribution of Consideration to Members

Sec. 1. The consideration to be distributed to the eligible members shall be:

- (1) cash;
- (2) stock or other securities of the former mutual or of the parent company;
- (3) additional paid up insurance or annuity benefits;
- (4) any combination of the forms of consideration listed in this section; or
- (5) other forms of consideration described in the plan of conversion and acceptable to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. The form or forms of consideration to be distributed to a class, category, or group of eligible members may differ from the form or forms of consideration to be distributed to another class, category, or group of eligible members. The choice of the form or forms of consideration to be distributed to a class or category of eligible members may take into account such factors as the type of policies with respect to which the consideration is being distributed, the country or state of residence or tax status of the eligible members, the length of time the eligible members have been members of the converting mutual, or other appropriate factors or circumstances described in the plan of conversion.

Sec. 3. Distribution of all or part of the consideration to some or all of the eligible members may be delayed, or restrictions on sale or transfer of any stock or other securities to be distributed to eligible members may be required, for a reasonable period of time following the effective date of the conversion. However, the period of time may not exceed six (6) months except as permitted under chapter 12 of this article.

Sec. 4. (a) A converting mutual may satisfy the requirement to distribute the fair value of the converting company to the eligible

1 members by providing for the distribution to the eligible members 2 of all of the initial stock of the former mutual, or all of the initial 3 stock of a parent company if one is established in the conversion, 4 without the payment by or to the eligible members of any 5 additional consideration.

6 (b) For purposes of this section, all of the initial stock of the 7 former mutual or a parent company shall be considered 8 distributed to the eligible members even if the plan of conversion 9 or the application for approval provides for:

10 (1) the offer or sale, promptly following the effective date of 11 the plan of conversion, to the public or to other persons of 12 additional shares of stock of the former mutual or a parent 13 company at a price not less than the fair market value of that 14 stock, with the proposed terms of the transaction disclosed to 15 the commissioner in the application for approval;

16 (2) the distribution to or for the benefit of certain classes, 17 categories, or groups of eligible members of cash, additional 18 paid up insurance or annuity benefits, or other consideration
 19 in lieu of initial stock of the former mutual or a parent 20 company, if:

21 (A) that other consideration is required or appropriate as 22 a result of tax considerations, the country or state of 23 residence of the eligible members, the nominal value of the 24 stock that those eligible members otherwise would be 25 entitled to receive, or other factors or circumstances 26 approved by the commissioner;

27 (B) the value of the other consideration to be distributed to 28 those eligible members is substantially equal, as of the 29 effective date of the conversion, to the value of the stock 30 those eligible members otherwise would be entitled to 31 receive;

32 (C) the eligible members who receive other consideration
 33 in lieu of stock constitute not more than ten percent (10%) 34 of the total number of eligible members; and

35 (D) the classes, categories, or groups of those eligible 36 members, and the consideration they are to receive in lieu 37 of stock, are described in the plan of conversion, with all 38 additional material terms and conditions disclosed in the 39 application for approval; or

40 (3) a delayed distribution of consideration that is approved 41 under section 3 of this chapter or IC 27-15-12.

 31 variable basis and without regard to contributions to surplus.

32 (b) The circumstances under which consideration may be 33 allocated under subsection (a) include any of the following:

- 34 (1) Each eligible member has made approximately equal 35 contributions to surplus.
 36 (2) Earned premiums, size of policy, length of relationship 37 with the converting mutual, or other criteria provide a 38 reasonable approximation of or substitute for contributions 39 to surplus.
 40 (3) The aggregate contributions to surplus of the eligible
 41 members constitute less than the majority of the converting 42 mutual's surplus.

1 Sec. 4. The historical information of the converting mutual and 2 its eligible members that is used for purposes of the method or 3 formula for allocating consideration among the eligible members
 4 shall include information and data, or actuarially sound 5 approximations or estimates of information and data, for such 6 periods of time as are necessary or appropriate to apply the 7 method or formula.

8 Sec. 5. The method or formula used by a converting mutual 9 under this article must be consistent with any applicable
 10 requirements of the converting mutual's articles of incorporation.

11 Chapter 10. Dividend Preservation

12 Sec. 1. (a) The sole purpose of any dividend preservation 13 provision shall be to provide for reasonable policyholder dividend 14 expectations on policies that provide for the distribution of policy 15 dividends.

16 (b) No dividend preservation provision in a plan under this 17 article shall be permitted to be a substitute for the distribution of 18 consideration to eligible members upon extinguishing their 19 membership interests as required by this article.

20 Sec. 2. Any dividend preservation provision may be limited to 21 participating individual life insurance policies and participating 22 individual annuity contracts in force or considered to be in force 23 by the plan of conversion on the effective date of the plan of 24 conversion for which the mutual insurer has an experience-based 25 dividend scale due, paid, or accrued by action of the board of 26 directors of the converting mutual in the year in which the plan of 27 reorganization is adopted. However:

28 (1) policies that would be included but for the fact that their 29 recent issuance results in no dividends for an initial period 30 may be included;

31 (2) policies that are in force as extended term insurance may 32 be included; and

33 (3) other categories of policies and benefits not described in 34 this subsection may be included or excluded, subject to the 35 approval of the commissioner.

36 Chapter 11. Use of a Closed Block

37 Sec. 1. This chapter applies if a closed block is used for the 38 preservation of the reasonable dividend expectations of eligible 39 members and other policyholders.

40 Sec. 2. The converting mutual shall prepare a written plan of 41 operation for the closed block, consistent with the requirements of 42 this article.

1 Sec. 3. The closed block shall be operated for the exclusive
 2 benefit of policies and contracts included in it. No costs or expenses 3 incurred in connection with the conversion shall be charged to the 4 closed block. Subject to termination of the closed block under 5 section 7 of this chapter, none of the assets allocated to the closed 6 block or the revenue derived from those assets may revert to the 7 benefit of the stockholders of the former mutual or any parent 8 company.

9 Sec. 4. The assets allocated to the closed block, together with the 10 revenue from the closed block, must be reasonably sufficient to:

11 (1) support the business in the closed block until the time the 12 last policy in the closed block has terminated, including 13 payment of claims and those expenses and taxes as are 14 specified in the plan of conversion; and 15 (2) provide for:

16 (A) continuation of dividend scales in effect on the date the 17 board of directors adopted the resolution proposing the 18 plan of conversion, if the experience underlying those 19 scales continues; and

20 (B) appropriate adjustments in the scales if the experience 21 changes.

22 Sec. 5. The assets assigned to a closed block shall be specified in 23 the plan of operation and must consist of:

24 (1) a list of designated assets of the converting mutual's 25 general account or specified segments of the converting 26 mutual's general account, which list shall change periodically
 27 to reflect the acquisition and disposition of assets;

28 (2) a designated portion of each and every asset of the 29 converting mutual's general account or specified segments of 30 the converting mutual's general account, which portion shall 31 change periodically to reflect the cash flows of the closed 32 block; or

33 (3) assets designated by a combination of the methods
 34 described in this section.

35 Sec. 6. The plan of operation must specify the following:

36 (1) The method of assignment of closed block assets referred 37 to in section 5 of this chapter that is being used.

38 (2) The methods by which the designations of assets or 39 portions of assets are changed during the course of closed 40 block operations.

41 Sec. 7. The plan of operation must provide for the conditions 42 under which the former mutual, with the approval of the

1 commissioner, may cease to maintain the closed block.

2 Sec. 8. The former mutual shall:

- 3 (1) submit to the commissioner annual reports, in a form
- 4 acceptable to the commissioner, that account for and describe
- 5 the operations of the closed block; and
- 6 (2) as specified in the plan of operation, provide at least every
- 7 three (3) years for reviews of, and reports and opinions on, the
- 8 closed block by an independent actuary, unless otherwise
- 9 directed by the commissioner.

10 Chapter 12. Effect of Pending Claims on the Distribution of 11 Consideration to Members

12 Sec. 1. All or part of the consideration to be distributed to some 13 or all of the eligible members may be delayed by more than six (6) 14 months following the effective date of the plan of conversion if:

- 15 (1) the plan of conversion includes a provision for the
- 16 establishment of a trust for that purpose; and
- 17 (2) one (1) or more of the following claims have been asserted
- 18 against a converting mutual and remain unresolved at the
- 19 effective date of the plan of conversion:

20 (A) A claim seeking the imposition of a constructive or 21 charitable trust on assets of the converting mutual for the

22 benefit of policyholders, members, or other identified or

23 unidentified persons.

24 (B) A claim seeking distribution or return of assets, or

25 other form of compensation, from the converting mutual

26 to policyholders, members, or other identified or

27 unidentified persons.

28 (C) A claim that arises out of or relates to the ownership

29 interest of members of the converting mutual, or to the 30 value of their ownership interests, including any claim that

31 challenges a statutory transaction engaged in by the 32 converting mutual before the effective date of the plan of 33 conversion.

34 Sec. 2. (a) At the effective date of the plan of conversion, assets 35 adequate to satisfy a claim described in section 1 of this chapter, 36 consisting of the consideration that otherwise would be distributed 37 directly to eligible members, must be placed in trust under a trust 38 agreement in a form approved by the commissioner. The trustee or 39 trustees of the trust shall:

- 40 (1) be appointed by the board of directors of the converting
- 41 mutual, subject to disapproval of any trustee by the
- 42 commissioner; and

1 (2) consist of one (1) or more institutions authorized by 2 Indiana law to act as corporate trustees.

3 (b) The beneficiaries of the trust:

4 (1) are the eligible members who, in the absence of the claims, 5 would have been entitled to the consideration placed in the 6 trust; and

7 (2) may consist of all of the eligible members or specified 8 classes or groups of eligible members.

9 (c) Assets of the trust shall be made available to pay or 10 otherwise satisfy the claims for which the trust has been 11 established, the expenses of the trust in contesting or resolving 12 those claims, and any other reasonable expenses of the trust. Upon 13 final resolution of the claims, by judgment, settlement or otherwise, 14 or at such other times as may be provided for in the trust 15 agreement, the remaining assets of the trust shall be distributed to 16 the beneficiaries in accordance with their respective interests in the 17 trust.

18 (d) Until the trust has been terminated, the trustee or trustees 19 shall prepare reports not less frequently than annually, upon 20 termination of the trust, and at such other times as may be 21 requested by the commissioner or the former mutual. The reports 22 must contain information regarding the financial condition of the 23 trust and the status of any resolved and pending claims. The 24 reports shall be provided to the commissioner and the former 25 mutual and the reports or summary reports shall be mailed at least 26 annually to the beneficiaries of the trust at the expense of the trust.

27 (e) An interest in a trust established under this section does not 28 constitute a security under Indiana law.

29 (f) The establishment of a trust or pendency of any claim 30 described in this chapter may not delay or affect the effectiveness 31 of a plan of conversion or an amendment to the articles of 32 incorporation.

33 Chapter 13. Initial Limits on Ownership of Shares

34 Sec. 1. (a) Except as specifically provided in a plan of 35 conversion, for five (5) years following the effective date of the 36 conversion no person or persons acting in concert (other than the 37 former mutual, any parent company, or any employee benefit 38 plans or trusts sponsored by the former mutual or a parent 39 company) shall directly or indirectly offer to acquire or acquire in 40 any manner the beneficial ownership of five percent (5%) or more 41 of the outstanding shares of any class of a voting security of the 42 former mutual or any parent company without the prior approval

1 by the commissioner of a statement filed by that person with the 2 commissioner.

3 (b) The statement described in subsection (a) must contain the 4 information required by IC 27-1-23-2(b) and any other 5 information required by the commissioner.

6 Sec. 2. The commissioner may not approve an acquisition under 7 section 1(a) of this chapter unless the commissioner finds that:

- 8 (1) the requirements of IC 27-1-23-2(e) will be satisfied;
9 (2) the acquisition will not frustrate the plan of conversion or 10 the amendment to the articles of incorporation as approved 11 by the members and the commissioner; 12 (3) the boards of directors of the former mutual and any 13 parent company have approved the acquisition; and 14 (4) the acquisition would be in the best interest of the present 15 and future policyholders of the former mutual without regard 16 to any interest of policyholders as shareholders of the former 17 mutual or any parent company.

18 Sec. 3. A security that is:

- 19 (1) the subject of any agreement or arrangement regarding 20 acquisition; or 21 (2) acquired or is to be acquired in contravention of this 22 chapter or of an order of the commissioner;

23 may not be voted at any shareholders' meeting. Any action of 24 shareholders requiring the affirmative vote of a percentage of 25 shares may be taken as though the securities were not issued and 26 outstanding. However, no action taken at a meeting shall be 27 invalidated by the voting of those securities unless the action would 28 materially affect control of the former mutual or a person that 29 owns or controls a majority or all of the voting securities of the 30 former mutual or unless the courts of this state have so ordered.

31 Sec. 4. The requirements of this chapter are in addition to any 32 other filings or approvals required by IC 27-1-23 or otherwise by 33 law.

34 Chapter 14. Initial Limits on the Sale of Stock

35 Sec. 1. For one (1) year following the effective date of the plan 36 of conversion, neither the former mutual nor any parent company 37 may sell or issue, or adopt any plan or benefit program providing 38 for the sale or issuance of, any stock or other equity security except 39 as disclosed in the application for approval of the plan of 40 conversion.

41 Sec. 2. Notwithstanding section 1 of this chapter, the 42 commissioner may permit the sale or issuance of stock in less than

1 one (1) year following the effective date of a plan of conversion
2 upon a finding that the stock transaction:

3 (1) will not frustrate the plan of conversion or the amendment
4 to the articles of incorporation as approved by the members 5 and the commissioner; and

6 (2) is in the best interests of the policyholders of the former 7 mutual, without regard to any interests of policyholders as 8 shareholders of the former mutual or any parent company.

9 Chapter 15. Modified Conversion Requirements for Companies
10 in Hazardous Financial Condition

11 Sec. 1. (a) If a domestic mutual insurance company:

12 (1) is insolvent, as defined in IC 27-9-1-2(l);

13 (2) does not meet the minimum surplus requirements of 14 IC 27-1-6-15; or

15 (3) in the judgment of the commissioner, is in a hazardous 16 financial condition;

17 its board of directors may adopt, and the commissioner may 18 approve, any plan of conversion and amendment to the articles of 19 incorporation that, on the effective date of the conversion, would 20 provide for the former mutual to have paid-in capital stock and 21 surplus in an amount not less than the minimum requirements of 22 IC 27-1-6-14(c) and (e) and an RBC level greater than its company
23 action RBC level.

24 (b) The commissioner may allow waivers or material
25 modifications of the requirement to give any notices to members 26 and policyholders, to obtain member approval of the proposed plan 27 of conversion or amendment to the articles of incorporation of the 28 converting mutual, or to distribute consideration to members if the 29 value of a converting mutual described in subsection (a) does not 30 in the judgment of the commissioner warrant any such notices, 31 approvals, or distribution under the circumstances, including the 32 expenses involved in a distribution of consideration.

33 Sec. 2. The application for approval of a plan of conversion and 34 an amendment to the articles of incorporation described in section 35 1 of this chapter must include a description of how the converting 36 mutual will meet the statutory surplus and capital requirements on 37 the date the plan of conversion is completed, which may involve the 38 issuance and sale directly to one (1) or more purchasers of the 39 capital stock of the former mutual or of a parent company.

40 Sec. 3. The commissioner shall approve the application and 41 permit the conversion under a plan of conversion and an 42 amendment to the articles of incorporation described in this

1 chapter if the commissioner finds, following a public hearing, that 2 the plan of conversion and the amendment to the articles of 3 incorporation are in the best interests of the members and 4 policyholders of the converting mutual, without regard to their 5 membership interests.

6 Sec. 4. The requirements of this chapter are in addition to, and 7 may be combined with, any other filings, approvals, or hearings
 8 required by IC 27-1-23 or otherwise by law.

9 Chapter 16. Judicial Review

10 Sec. 1. A person who is aggrieved by an agency action of the 11 commissioner under this article may petition for judicial review of 12 the action under IC 4-21.5-5.

13 Sec. 2. All petitions for judicial review of, and any action 14 challenging the validity of or arising out of:

15 (1) the approval or disapproval of; or

16 (2) any action proposed to be taken under;

17 any order or determination of the commissioner in connection with 18 an application for conversion under this article must be filed not 19 later than thirty (30) days after the order or determination is 20 issued by the commissioner.

21 Sec. 3. A person who is aggrieved by a failure of the 22 commissioner to act or make a determination required by this 23 article may bring an action for mandate in the circuit court of 24 Marion County to compel the commissioner to act or make the 25 determination.

26 Chapter 17. Miscellaneous Provisions

27 Sec. 1. A parent company under this article:

28 (1) shall be organized under the laws of any state; and 29 (2) may be:

30 (A) a corporation organized for the purpose of serving as 31 a holding company for the former mutual or a corporation 32 that, before the conversion, was a subsidiary of the 33 converting mutual; or

34 (B) any other existing or newly created corporation.

35 Sec. 2. The commissioner may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 36 necessary for the administration of this article.

37 Sec. 3. (a) The commissioner may, at the expense of a converting 38 mutual that has filed an application under this article, hire
 39 accountants, actuaries, attorneys, financial advisors, investment 40 bankers, and other experts that are necessary to assist the 41 commissioner in reviewing all matters under this article.

42 (b) The commissioner may at any time require the converting

1 mutual to deposit an amount of money with the department in 2 anticipation of expenses to be incurred by the commissioner under 3 this section.
 4 Sec. 4. If a converting mutual complies substantially and in good 5 faith with this article with respect to any required notice to 6 members and policyholders, its failure in any case to give the notice 7 to any person entitled to notice does not:
 8 (1) impair the validity of actions taken under this article; or 9 (2) entitle the person to any injunctive or other relief.
 10 Sec. 5. At any time before the effective date of the plan of 11 conversion, the plan may be abandoned under provisions included 12 in the plan of conversion filed under this article.
 13 Sec. 6. After conversion, the name of the former mutual may not 14 include the term "mutual", except as approved by the 15 commissioner as not being misleading to the policyholders or the 16 public.
 17 SECTION 3. IC 27-1-8-13 IS REPEALED [EFFECTIVE UPON
