HOUSE BILL No. 1676

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning taxation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 6-3-3-11 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1999 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 11. (a) As used in this section, "dependent" means a person who the taxpayer is eligible to claim as a dependent on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year under Section 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) As used in this section, "family college savings" means deposits made to an individual trust account in the Indiana family college savings trust fund under IC 21-9.

(c) As used in this section, "higher education institution" has the meaning set forth in IC 21-9-2-16.

(d) As used in this section, "individual trust account" has the meaning set forth in IC 21-9-2-17.

(e) As used in this section, "taxpayer" means an individual filing a separate return or a husband and wife filing a joint return.

(f) A taxpayer is entitled to a grant equal to the amount specified in subsection (g) for a taxable year in which the taxpayer deposits family college savings in an individual trust account for the taxpayer's dependent.

(g) The amount of the grant allowed under this section is equal to the lesser of:

(1) fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate of the family college savings deposited by the taxpayer for the taxpayer's dependent; or

(2) two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per dependent.

(h) A grant allowed under this section must be claimed in conformity with the procedures established by the department of state revenue.

(i) A taxpayer claiming a grant under this section is not entitled to a reduction in the taxpayer's adjusted gross income tax liability. The department of state revenue shall deposit the taxpayer's grant in the individual trust account in which the taxpayer made a deposit of family college savings for a dependent.

(j) Money deposited under this section may be used only for a purpose for which other money in the individual trust account may be used. If:

(1) a grant was deposited under this section; and

(2) the amount deposited is withdrawn from the Indiana family college savings trust fund and not used in conformity with the purposes of the Indiana family college savings trust fund, as determined under the policies and procedures specified by the board of directors of the Indiana education savings authority under IC 21-9-7-1;

the taxpayer receiving the grant is subject to a penalty in the year of the withdrawal. The amount of the penalty is the amount of grants given under this section on the amount withdrawn, excluding any earnings on the amount deposited. The amount of the penalty shall be treated as other penalties imposed under IC 6-8.1. However, the board of directors of the Indiana education savings authority may provide for the withholding of a penalty imposed under this subsection from amounts withdrawn from the Indiana family college savings trust fund and the direct payment of the amount of the penalty to the department of state revenue. The authority may provide for the waiving of a penalty imposed under this subsection in the case of circumstances described in IC 21-9-7-1.

SECTION 2. IC 21-9-7-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1999 (RETROACTIVE)]: Sec. 1. In addition to any other powers granted by this article, the board has all powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and objectives of this chapter, IC 21-9-8, and IC 21-9-9, the purposes and objectives of the family college savings programs that may be established under this article, and the powers delegated by other laws or executive orders, including the following:

(1) To establish policies and procedures, including penalties, to govern withdrawals from accounts in the event of:

(A) the death or disability of an account beneficiary;

(B) the denial of admission or acceptance by a higher education institution of an account beneficiary; ~~and~~

(C) other hardships or special circumstances affecting account owners and account beneficiaries; ~~However,~~ and

(D) the use of withdrawn money for a purpose other than an allowable purpose at a higher education institution.

The authority must establish penalties for ~~early~~ the withdrawal or use of money from accounts in circumstances other than hardships ~~described in this subdivision.~~ affecting account owners or account beneficiaries.

(2) To establish policies and procedures regarding the transfer of individual accounts and the designation of substitute account beneficiaries.

(3) To establish policies and procedures for withdrawal of money from accounts for, or in reimbursement of, allowable expenditures.

(4) To establish policies and procedures regarding recapture of all or a part of prior or current benefits or incentives allocated or allocable to accounts, including the penalty under IC 6-3-3-11. The board may, in appropriate circumstances in the board's judgment, recapture as a precondition to withdrawal.

(5) To enter into agreements with account owners, account beneficiaries, and contributors, with the agreements naming:

(A) the account owner, who must be an adult or emancipated minor; and

(B) the account beneficiary, who may also be the account owner, if qualified.

(6) To establish accounts for account beneficiaries. However:

(A) the authority shall establish a separate account for each account beneficiary; and

(B) an individual may be the beneficiary of more than one (1) account.

(7) To enter into agreements with financial institutions relating to accounts as well as deposits, withdrawals, penalties, recaptures of benefits or incentives, allocation of benefits or incentives, and transfers of accounts, account owners, and account beneficiaries.

(8) To conform the trust program and the account program to federal tax advantages or incentives, as the advantages or incentives may exist periodically, to the extent consistent with the purposes and objectives of this article.

(9) To interpret, in rules, policies, guidelines, and procedures, the provisions of this article, broadly considering the purposes and objectives of this article.

SECTION 3. [EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1999 (RETROACTIVE)] IC 6-3-3-11, as added by this act, applies only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1998.

SECTION 4. An emergency is declared for this act.
