

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT
DIGEST FOR SB 487

Citations Affected: IC 11-10-12-2; IC 11-12-5-2.

Synopsis: Inmate release. Proposed conference committee report for SB 487. Allows the department of correction to procure public transportation for a released offender to the Indiana city or town that is nearest to the released offender's designated place of residence. Provides that a criminal offender is not entitled to receive a payment in lieu of transportation unless the department provides for the payment in its rules. Provides that a jail inmate may be released to work in a work party formed to do work for the benefit of the community. Allows the sheriff to require that a jail inmate may be required to wear a distinctive jail uniform when in a work party. (This conference committee report removes provisions relating to the establishment of five Project IMPACT affiliate organizations in Indiana. Adds July 1, 1999, as the effective date for a provision relating to work release of persons committed to the county jail.)

Effective: July 1, 1999.
