

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT
DIGEST FOR HB 1936

Citations Affected: IC 22-4-19-6.5.

Synopsis: Access to wage and employment information. Allows the department of workforce development, working through Access Indiana, to contract with a private entity to allow the private entity to provide secure electronic access to employment and wage information regarding employees. Requires a creditor to have a written consent from the employee before obtaining the information. Requires the creditor to provide the private entity with a copy of the written consent. Requires that a creditor retain a written consent for three years, or the length of the loan, if the loan is for less than three years. Requires the private entity that contracts with Access Indiana for the information from the department of workforce development to pay the costs of implementing and administering the program. (This conference committee report does the following: (1) Removes the provision that a private entity retain a written consent. (2) Requires that a creditor retain a written consent for three years or the length of the loan if the loan is for less than three years. (3) Requires a private entity that has entered into a contract with the department of workforce development to maintain a constant verification system that audits at least five percent of daily transactions and to maintain a file of audit procedures and results.)

Effective: July 1, 1999.
