

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating Glenn J. Tabor upon his selection as the 1999 Indiana Trial Lawyers' Lifetime Achievement Award winner.

Whereas, For more than thirty five years Glenn J. Tabor has dedicated his professional life to enforcing and protecting the rights of Indiana citizen's to trial by a jury of their peers;

Whereas, Glenn Tabor has proven his professional commitment to justice in Indiana, and has consistently presented himself as an outstanding example of professional civility;

Whereas, Mr. Tabor has fulfilled his obligation of service to his community of Valparaiso by performing random acts of kindness throughout;

Whereas, Glenn Tabor has remained strong in his commitment to the First Methodist Church of Valparaiso and devoted to his wife of 39 years, Patricia, and his two daughters Rebecca and Kathy; and

Whereas, Glenn J. Tabor has been a long time member of the Indiana Trial Lawyers Association serving as ITLA president in 1989 and now serving as an emeritus director and a member of the College of Fellows: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly hereby congratulates Glenn J. Tabor upon his selection as the 1999 Indiana Trial Lawyers' Lifetime Achievement Award winner.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this Resolution to Glenn J. Tabor and to the Indiana Trial Lawyers Association.