SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Oakland City University Mighty Oaks for winning the Men's NCCAA Basketball Championship.

Whereas, on Saturday, March 20, 1999, the Oakland City University Mighty Oaks defeated the Emmanuel College of Franklin Springs, Georgia, by a score of 86-75 to capture their first National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) championship;

Whereas, the Mighty Oaks, led by eight seniors, never trailed in the championship game, and, with the exception of the first five minutes of the semi-final game with Cedarville College, the Oaks never trailed in the NCCAA "Elite Eight" three game format;

Whereas, outstanding Oak, Kyle Lindsey, from Solsberry, Indiana, was named the tournament Most Valuable Player, scoring an average of 14.7 points for the tournament;

Whereas, by providing inspiration and encouragement, the Mighty Oaks coach, Mike Standifar, has skillfully and carefully guided the team to a successful 23-7 season, with a record number of 16 consecutive wins at home; and

Whereas, the Mighty Oak's success is the result of a total team effort, and each member of the team, Coach Standifar, the assistant coaches, managers, trainers, and staff should be honored for superior performance and team spirit.

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

- 1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly hereby
- 2 congratulates Oakland City University's Men's Basketball Team upon
