PHONE NUMBER: 233-3546

FUNDS AFFECTED: X GENERAL

IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that an individual in need of in-home care who is an eligible Medicaid recipient or a participant in the Community and Home Options to Institutional Care for the Elderly and Disabled Program (CHOICE) may employ registered personal services attendants to provide attendant care services. The bill exempts from these provisions home health agencies, hospice programs, and health care professionals who practice within the scope of their license. It also requires an individual in need of in-home care and the individual's case manager to develop an authorized care plan.

This bill also requires an individual in need of in-home care to hire a fiscal agent to provide payroll related services. The bill requires the fiscal agent to register with the Office of Medicaid Policy and Planning (OMPP). It also requires that appropriate federal Medicaid waivers be sought to permit reimbursement of these services under the Medicaid program. This bill also exempts attendant care services performed by a personal services attendant from the practice of medicine and nursing. The bill also makes certain other changes.

Effective Date: Upon passage; July 1, 2000.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The provisions of this bill are estimated to have either no fiscal impact or, potentially, a small savings to the Medicaid and CHOICE programs.

This bill allows an individual recipient of the Medicaid or CHOICE program who is in need of in-home care to be responsible for the recruiting, hiring, training, paying, dismissing, and supervising of a personal services attendant. The state of Kansas has had a similar provision in their Medicaid home and community-based waivers since about 1992. Representatives of the Kansas Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services (Kansas' Medicaid agency) and of the Occupational Center of Central Kansas (a non-profit organization) stated that this provision has been cost effective in their state and has reduced costs to their Medicaid program, largely due to the reduction in training expenses and overhead required of the Medicaid program.

The bill provides for the collection of registration fees (from in-home attendants) by the Indiana Division of Disability, Aging, and Rehabilitative Services (DDARS) within the Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA). Area Agencies on Aging (AAA) may also collect fees for shipping, handling, and copying expenses. The fees that may be collected by DDARS and AAAs are limited by the bill for the initial two-year period of the program. The limits are $30 for registration fees to DDARS and $5 for handling fees to AAAs.
