Summary of Legislation: This bill prohibits a person who is less than 23 years of age from petitioning a court for the expungement of juvenile records relating to the person's involvement in delinquency proceedings. The bill makes a person ineligible to petition for the expungement of juvenile records relating to the person's involvement in delinquency proceedings if the person, after becoming 18 years of age, has committed a felony, a Class A or Class B misdemeanor, or two Class C misdemeanors. The bill provides that if a criminal charge is pending against a person and the person, if convicted of the criminal charge, would be ineligible to petition for the expungement of juvenile records, the court is required to stay proceedings on the person's petition for the expungement of juvenile records until the criminal charge against the person is disposed of.

Effective Date: July 1, 2000.
