HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the 1999 State Champion North Central High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad.

Whereas, The North Central High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad, on November 21, 1999, won the 1999 State Cheerleading Championship;

Whereas, The North Central High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad advanced to the state championship competition after being chosen as one of three finalists at the regional cheerleading competition held on November 7, 1999;

Whereas, The members of the North Central High School Cheerleading Squad exhibited significant athletic strength by including the following in their award-winning routine – jumps, pyramids, partner stunts, building, dance, tumbling, cheering – and were true professionals in developing crowd appeal through their showmanship;

Whereas, Lillian Bartlett, Alex Keenan, Andi Keenan, Hayley Wagner, Annegeliqe Blakey, Mandy Reister, Abby Yaakey, Ashley Schneider, Holly Phillips, Binta Ajabu and Mary Howald are the outstanding members of this champion cheerleading squad;

Whereas, Lisa Knipp is the experienced coach of this champion cheerleading squad, excelling in varsity cheerleading coaching for eighteen years at North Central High School;

Whereas, The North Central High School Cheerleading Squad has a long history of success, including winning the following – 1998 State Cheerleading Championship, Clinton County Championship, Boone County Championship, Madison County Championship, Metropolitan Interscholastic Conference Championship – and placing fourth in the National Cheerleading Association's National Championship in Dallas, Texas;

Whereas, The future success of the North Central High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad appears to be secure, as evidenced by the heroic efforts of freshman Mary Howald, when she learned the squad routine perfectly, within two days, to replace senior Mandy Reister after Mandy suffered a severe separation of the knee during the critical regional competition;

Whereas, The strength, perseverance, team spirit, and drive for excellence of the members of the North Central High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad is equaled only by their significant academic achievement, their squad grade point average being 3.3 on a 4.0 scale;

Whereas, North Central High School Athletic Director Chuck Jones and Principal C. E. Quandt are to be commended for fostering an educational environment wherein students have the freedom to develop their full potential as successful athletes and scholars;

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:

- 1 SECTION 1. That the North Central High School Varsity
- 2 Cheerleading Squad is congratulated for winning the State
- 3 Cheerleading Championship for 1999.
- 4 SECTION 2. That North Central High School Varsity
- 5 Cheerleading Coach Lisa Knipp, Athletic Director Chuck Jones, and
- 6 Principal C. E. Quandt are congratulated for supporting the members
- 7 of the squad as they rose to victory.
- 8 SECTION 3. That the Principal Clerk of the Indiana House of
- 9 Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to each member of
- 10 the squad named in this resolution, Coach Lisa Knipp, Athletic
- 11 Director Chuck Jones, and Principal C. E. Quandt.
