HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 5

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED RESOLUTION

Citations Affected: Articles 4 and 5 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana.

Synopsis: Restrictions on state tax increases. Provides that a bill to increase state taxes or impose a new state tax may not become law unless the bill is approved by a two-thirds majority vote in each house of the general assembly or the tax increase or new tax is approved in a statewide referendum. This proposed amendment has not been previously agreed to by a general assembly.

Effective: This proposed amendment must be agreed to by two consecutive general assemblies and ratified by a majority of the state's voters voting on the question to be effective.

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to Articles 4 and 5 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana concerning taxation.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1 SECTION 1. The following amendments to the Constitution of the 2 State of Indiana are proposed and agreed to by this, the One Hundred 3 Eleventh General Assembly of the State of Indiana, and are referred to 4 the next General Assembly for reconsideration and agreement.

5 SECTION 2. ARTICLE 4, SECTION 25 OF THE CONSTITUTION
6 OF THE STATE OF INDIANA IS AMENDED TO READ AS 7 FOLLOWS: Section 25. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a
8 majority of all the members elected to each House shall be necessary
9 to pass every bill or joint resolution; and all bills and joint resolutions
10 so passed shall be signed by the Presiding Officers of the respective 11 Houses.

12 (b) A bill that increases state tax rates or establishes a new state 13 tax may not become law unless:

- 1           (1) two-thirds of the members elected to each House:
 2               (A) declare that an emergency exists; and
 3               (B) vote to approve the bill; or 4           (2) a majority of the persons voting in a statewide election
 5               approve the tax increase or new tax.

6           SECTION 3. ARTICLE 5, SECTION 14 OF THE CONSTITUTION
 7           OF THE STATE OF INDIANA IS AMENDED TO READ AS 8           FOLLOWS: Section 14. (a) Every bill which shall have passed the 9           General Assembly shall be presented to the Governor. The Governor 10          shall have seven days after the day of presentment to act upon such bill 11          as follows:

- 12           (1) He may sign it, in which event it shall become a law.
 13           (2) He may veto it:

14           (A) In the event of a veto while the General Assembly is in 15           session, he shall return such bill, with his objections, within 16           seven days of presentment, to the House in which it originated.

17           If the Governor does not return the bill within seven days of 18           presentment, the bill becomes a law notwithstanding the veto.

19           (B) If the Governor returns the bill under clause (A), the 20           House in which the bill originated shall enter the Governor's 21           objections at large upon its journals and proceed to reconsider
 22           and vote upon whether to approve the bill. The bill must be 23           reconsidered and voted upon within the time set out in clause
 24           (C). If, after such reconsideration and vote, a majority of all 25           the members elected to that House shall approve the bill, it
 26           shall be sent, with the Governor's objections, to the other 27           House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered and voted 28           upon, and, if approved by a majority of all the members
 29           elected to that House, it shall be a law.

30           (C) If the Governor returns the bill under clause (A), the 31           General Assembly shall reconsider and vote upon the approval 32           of the bill before the final adjournment of the next regular 33           session of the General Assembly that follows the regular or 34           special session in which the bill was originally passed. If the 35           House in which the bill originated does not approve the bill
 36           under clause (B), the other House is not required to reconsider
 37           and vote upon the approval of the bill. If, after voting, either 38           House fails to approve the bill within this time, the veto is 39           sustained.

40           (D) In the event of a veto after final adjournment of a session 41           of the General Assembly, such bill shall be returned by the 42           Governor to the House in which it originated on the first day

- 1 that the General Assembly is in session after such 2 adjournment, which House shall proceed in the same manner
3 as with a bill vetoed before adjournment. The bill must be
4 reconsidered and voted upon within the time set out in clause
5 (C). If such bill is not so returned, it shall be a law
6 notwithstanding such veto.
- 7 (3) He may refuse to sign or veto such bill in which event it shall 8 become a law without his signature on the eighth day after 9 presentment to the Governor.
- 10 (b) Every bill presented to the Governor which is signed by him or 11 on which he fails to act within said seven days after presentment shall 12 be filed with the Secretary of State within ten days of presentment. The 13 failure to so file shall not prevent such a bill from becoming a law.
- 14 (c) In the event a bill is passed over the Governor's veto, such bill 15 shall be filed with the Secretary of State without further presentment to 16 the Governor, provided that, in the event of such passage over the 17 Governor's veto in the next succeeding General Assembly, the passage
18 shall be deemed to have been the action of the General Assembly
19 which initially passed such bill.
- 20 (d) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a bill that increases state tax 21 rates or establishes a new state tax does not become law over the 22 veto of the Governor unless two-thirds of the members elected to 23 each House approve the bill after reconsideration.
