SENATE BILL No. 259

DIGEST OF SB 259 (Updated January 27, 2000 1:55 PM - DI 51)

Citations Affected: IC 9-13; IC 9-24.

Synopsis: Selective service registration. Requires, as a condition of giving a driver's license or permit to a male individual (or female individual, if the federal selective service law requires female individuals to register with the Selective Service System) who is at least eighteen (18) years of age and is less than twenty-six (26) years of age, that an individual indicate under penalty of perjury whether the individual is registered with the Selective Service System or is exempt from registration. Allows the bureau of motor vehicles to provide the public with application forms to register with the Selective Service System.

Effective: July 1, 2000.

1 permit. Before the bureau may issue a license or permit to an
2 individual, an individual must make one (1) of the following
3 affirmative statements to the bureau:
4 (1) The applicant has registered with the Selective Service
5 System under the federal selective service law.
6 (2) The applicant is not required to register with the Selective
7 Service System under the federal selective service law.
8 A statement required under this section must be in writing, signed
9 by the individual making the statement, and made under penalties
10 of perjury. The statement shall be treated as part of the 11 individual's application for a license or permit. The bureau shall 12 prescribe the form used to comply with this section. The bureau
13 shall cooperate with the Selective Service System to make
14 registration forms provided by the Selective Service System
15 available to the public in each location where a license branch
16 operated under IC 9-16 is located.
