educators have participated, as well as members of Congress, businesses, professionals, and community organizations across the nation;

Whereas, The "We the People ..." competition is based on a classroom curriculum that complements the regular school curriculum by providing upper elementary, middle, and high school students with an innovative course of instruction on the history and principles of constitutional democracy in the United States;

Whereas, The "We the People ..." competition was designed to include a wide range of students with varying abilities;

Whereas, Norvin Conway led his class to victory in the "We the People ..." competition; and

Whereas, Involvement with the "We the People ..." competition allows students to develop a greater understanding of democratic principles and values and promotes political tolerance, and teachers such as Norvin Conway help to prepare the youth of Indiana for a future that will encourage their knowledge of and participation in our democratic system of government: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives
2 congratulates Norvin Conway and his Crispus Attucks Middle School
3 class on their victory in the "We the People ... the Citizen and the 4 Constitution" competition and encourages Norvin Conway to continue
5 to instill in his students a commitment to democratic principles.

6 SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of 7 Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Norvin
8 Conway and the members of his Crispus Attucks Middle School class.
