HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the Center for Education and Research Information Assurance and Security (CERIAS).

Whereas, The Center for Education and Research Information Assurance and Security (CERIAS) at Purdue University was founded in 1998 and is widely recognized as the world's foremost academic center of excellence in issues of information security and privacy;

Whereas, CERIAS has been organized as a multidisciplinary center at Purdue with over 100 affiliated faculty, staff, and graduate students on the Purdue campus interacting with business and industry to conduct research into privacy, computer and network protection, e-commerce safety, cybercrime prevention and investigation, computer-based terrorism, and national defense;

Whereas, The week of March 21 - 27 has been proclaimed Indiana Information Security Week in order to bring attention to the challenges posed by information security threats;

Whereas, This public awareness initiative will include events and activities designed to enhance the security literacy and skills of Indiana businesses, organizations, and citizens, and will kick off with an Information Security Symposium presented by CERIAS during the week of March 21 that will focus on issues of privacy, protection of intellectual and proprietary property, security education, and intrusion detection;

Whereas, Throughout the month of April, the Indiana Information Security Awareness Initiative will take a multilayered and multipronged approach to increasing security literacy and skills in order to position Indiana at the forefront of study and information regarding information assurance and security; and

Whereas, Indiana Information Security Week's efforts to raise awareness will include the development of media guides and information campaigns, the provision of information and resources to agencies, business leaders, and organizations to increase the security skills of businesses engaged in a variety of e-commerce activities, and the provision of information and assistance to public decision makers for use in developing appropriate security policies and legislation: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- 1 SECTION 1. That the members of the Indiana General Assembly
2 wish to recognize the efforts of the Center for Education and Research
3 Information Assurance and Security (CERIAS) in bringing attention to 4 the challenges posed by information security threats.
5 SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of
6 Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the members
7 of the Center for Education and Research Information Assurance and 8 Security (CERIAS).
