Citations Affected: None (noncode).

Synopsis: Violent crime interstate compact. Creates the interim study committee on interstate tracking of violent felons and registered sex offenders to study issues relating to: (1) the feasibility of entering into an agreement with other states to track the interstate movement of violent felons and sex offenders; (2) the use of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) data base to track violent felons and registered sex offenders; (3) the feasibility of having states maintain their own criminal history data base; and (4) other issues related to tracking the interstate movement of violent felons and sex offenders.

Effective: July 1, 2005.

Mrvan

January 11, 2005, read first time and referred to Committee on Judiciary.
SENATE BILL No. 390

A BILL FOR AN ACT concerning criminal law and procedure.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005] (a) As used in this SECTION, "committee" refers to the interim study committee on interstate tracking of violent felons and registered sex offenders established by this SECTION.

(b) There is established the interim study committee on interstate tracking of violent felons and registered sex offenders. The committee shall study:

1. the feasibility of entering into an agreement with other states to track the interstate movement of:
   (A) violent felons; and
   (B) registered sex offenders;
2. issues relating to the use of the National Crime Information Center's database to track the interstate movement of violent felons and registered sex offenders;
3. the feasibility of having states create and maintain a national criminal history database that would operate independently of the National Crime Information Center; and
4. other issues relating to tracking the interstate movement of violent felons and registered sex offenders.
of violent felons and sex offenders.
(c) The committee shall operate under the policies governing study committees adopted by the legislative council.
(d) The affirmative votes of a majority of the voting members appointed to the committee are required for the committee to take action on any measure, including final reports.
(e) This SECTION expires January 1, 2006.