
HOUSE BILL No. 1036

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 6-3.1-18; IC 21-9-9.5.

Synopsis: Lifelong learning account pilot program. Requires the Indiana education savings authority (authority) to establish and administer a lifelong learning account pilot program. Specifies that a lifelong learning account established for a participating individual must: (1) be an account in a financial institution; and (2) allow a participating individual to deposit, from the individual's earned income, money that may be matched by the participating individual's employer, a financial institution, the state, or any other entity, and that will be used by the participating individual for education and training costs at a postsecondary educational institution, a vocational school, or a training program that may lead to employment for the individual. Requires the authority to seek grants and other funding for the pilot program from public and private entities. Provides that money withdrawn from a participating individual's lifelong learning account is not subject to state income taxation if the money is used by the participating individual for specified education and training costs. Provides a state tax credit for contributions to a lifelong learning account. Specifies that money in a participating individual's lifelong learning account may not be considered: (1) an asset of the participating individual when determining the individual's eligibility for the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program; or (2) a countable asset for purposes of township assistance. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the interim study committee on adult education issues.)

Effective: July 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL No. 1036

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning education.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1 SECTION 1. IC 6-3.1-18-6 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
2 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 6. (a) Subject to the
3 limitations provided in subsection (b) and sections 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11
4 of this chapter, the department shall grant a tax credit against any state
5 tax liability due equal to the following:

6 (1) Fifty percent (50%) of the amount contributed by a person or
7 an individual to a fund if the contribution is not less than one
8 hundred dollars ($100) and not more than fifty thousand dollars
9 ($50,000).

10 (2) Fifty percent (50%) of the amount contributed by a person
11 or an individual to a lifelong learning account established
12 under IC 21-9-9.5, if the contribution is not less than one
13 hundred dollars ($100) and not more than fifty thousand
14 dollars ($50,000).

15 (b) The credit provided by this chapter shall only be applied against 16 any state tax liability owed by the taxpayer after the application of any
17 credits that under IC 6-3.1-1-2 must be applied before the credit

1 provided by this chapter.

2 SECTION 2. IC 6-3.1-18-10 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
3 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 10. (a) The amount of 4 tax credits allowed under this chapter may not exceed:

5 (1) two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for contributions
6 to a fund; and

7 (2) two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for contributions
8 to a lifelong learning account established under IC 21-9-9.5;
9 in any state fiscal year.

10 (b) The department shall:

11 (1) record the time of filing of each application for allowance of 12 a credit required under section 9 of this chapter; and

13 (2) approve the applications, if they otherwise qualify for a tax
14 credit under this chapter, in the chronological order in which the 15 applications are filed in the state fiscal year.

16 (c) When the total credits approved under this section equal the 17 maximum amount allowable in any state fiscal year, an application
18 filed after that time for the same fiscal year may not be approved.
19 However, if an applicant for whom a credit has been approved fails to 20 file the statement of proof of payment required under section 9 of this
21 chapter, an amount equal to the credit previously allowed or set aside
22 for the applicant may be allowed to any subsequent applicant in the 23 year. In addition, the department may, if the applicant so requests, 24 approve a credit application, in whole or in part, with respect to the 25 next succeeding state fiscal year.

26 SECTION 3. IC 21-9-9.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
27 AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
28 JULY 1, 2009]:

participate in the pilot program; and
(2) the permissible uses of money in a lifelong learning account.

Sec. 5. (a) The pilot program shall be implemented to encourage the establishment of lifelong learning accounts for participating individuals. A lifelong learning account established for a participating individual must:

- (1) be an account in a financial institution participating in the pilot program; and
- (2) allow a participating individual to deposit, from the individual's earned income, money:
 - (A) that may be matched by the participating individual's employer, a financial institution, the state, or any other entity; and
 - (B) that will be used by the participating individual for any tuition, laboratory costs, books, computer costs, and other fees that are incurred at a postsecondary educational institution, a vocational school, or a training program that may lead to employment for the individual.

(b) Money withdrawn from a participating individual's lifelong learning account is not subject to taxation under IC 6-3-1 through IC 6-3-7 if the money is used by the participating individual for the purposes described in subsection (a)(2)(B).

Sec. 6. Money in a participating individual's lifelong learning account may not be considered:

- (1) an asset of the participating individual when determining the individual's eligibility for assistance under IC 12-14; or
- (2) a countable asset (as defined in IC 12-7-2-44.6) for purposes of IC 12-20.

Sec. 7. The authority shall seek grants and other funding for the pilot program from public and private entities.

Sec. 8. The pilot program shall be administered separately from the college choice 529 investment plan or any other education savings plan administered by the authority.

Sec. 9. (a) Before November 1 of each year after 2009, the authority shall submit a report to the governor and the general assembly on the pilot program. The report submitted in 2014 must include the following:

- (1) Any conclusions and recommendations made by the authority concerning the pilot program.
- (2) Information concerning the cost and feasibility of expanding the pilot program.
