7 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2013]: Sec. 1.5. (a) As used in this section, 8 "erroneous payment" means a payment that would not have been 9 made but for the failure by an employer or a person acting on 10 behalf of the employer with respect to a claim for unemployment
11 benefits to which the payment relates.
- 12           (b) As used in this section, "pattern of failure" means a repeated 13 and documented failure by an employer or a person acting on 14 behalf of an employer to respond to requests for information made 15 by the department, taking into consideration the number of 16 failures in relation to the total number of requests received by the 17 employer or the person acting on behalf of an employer.
- 18           (c) The experience account of an employer may not be relieved 19 of charges for a benefit overpayment from the state's 20 unemployment insurance benefit fund established by IC 22-4-26-1, 21 if the department determines that:

1           (1) the erroneous payment was made because the employer or 2           a person acting on behalf of the employer was at fault in 3           failing to respond in a timely or adequate manner to the 4           department's written request for information relating to the 5           claim for unemployment benefits; and

6           (2) the employer or a person acting on behalf of the employer

 13           "SECTION 4. IC 22-4-11-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS 14           FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2013]: Sec. 4. (a) If the 15           commissioner finds that any employer has failed to file any payroll 16           report or has filed a report which the commissioner finds incorrect or 17           insufficient, the commissioner shall make an estimate of the 18           information required from the employer on the basis of the best 19           evidence reasonably available to the commissioner at the time and 20           notify the employer thereof by mail addressed to the employer's last 21           known address. Except as provided in subsection (b), unless the 22           employer files the report or a corrected or sufficient report, as the case 23           may be, within fifteen (15) days after the mailing of the notice, the 24           commissioner shall compute the employer's rate of contribution on the 25           basis of the estimates, and the rate determined in this manner shall be 26           subject to increase ~~but not to reduction or decrease~~ on the basis of 27           subsequently ascertained and verified information. The estimated 28           amount of contribution is considered prima facie correct.

29           (b) The commissioner may adjust the amount of contribution 30           estimated in this manner on the basis of information ascertained after 31           the expiration of the notice period if the employer or other interested 32           party:

33           (1) makes an affirmative showing of all facts alleged as a 34           reasonable cause for the failure to timely file any payroll report; 35           and
 36           (2) submits accurate and reliable payroll reports."

37           Page 8, line 40, after "services" insert ",".

38           Page 8, line 40, reset in roman "such as job search".

- 1 Page 8, reset in roman lines 41 through 42.
