I. Tax Administration – PenaltyDISCUSSION

IC 6-8.1-10-2.1(d), Liability for penalty, states:

If a person subject to the penalty imposed under this section can show that the failure to file a return, pay the full amount of tax shown on the person's return, timely remit tax held in trust, or pay the deficiency determined by the department was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the department shall waive the penalty.

45 IAC 15-11-2(b) states:

"Negligence" on behalf of a taxpayer is defined as the failure to use such reasonable care, caution, or diligence as would be expected of an ordinary reasonable taxpayer. Negligence would result from a taxpayer's carelessness, thoughtlessness, disregard or inattention to duties placed upon the taxpayer by the Indiana Code or department regulations. Ignorance of the listed tax laws, rules and/or regulations is treated as negligence. Further, failure to read and follow instructions provided by the department is treated as negligence. Negligence shall be determined on a case by case basis according to the facts and circumstances of each taxpayer.

Having reviewed the file and the reasons for the underpayment stated by the Taxpayer, the Department finds that under the circumstances described, Taxpayer was not negligent, as described within the regulation and statute. Taxpayer's actions were due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

FINDING

The taxpayer's penalty protest is sustained.
