ISSUEI. Sales Tax - Responsible Officer Liability

Authority: IC § 6-2.5-9-3; IC § 6-8.1-5-1(b).

The taxpayer protests the assessment of corporate sales taxes against him as a responsible officer.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The taxpayer was an officer of a corporation that sold recreational vehicles. The corporation did not remit sales taxes to Indiana for the tax period July 2004 through March 2005. The Indiana Department of Revenue assessed the outstanding corporate sales taxes, interest, and penalty against the taxpayer personally. The taxpayer protested the assessment and a hearing was held. This Letter of Findings results.

I. Sales Tax - Responsible Officer LiabilityDISCUSSION

The proposed sales tax liability was issued under authority of IC § 6-2.5-9-3 that provides as follows:

An individual who:

(1) is an individual retail merchant or is an employee, officer, or member of a corporate or partnership retail merchant; and

(2) has a duty to remit state gross retail or use taxes to the department; holds those taxes in trust for the state and is personally liable for the payment of those taxes, plus any penalties and interest attributable to those taxes, to the state.

Indiana Department of Revenue assessments are prima facie evidence that the tax assessment is correct.

The taxpayer bears the burden of proving that the assessment is incorrect. IC § 6-8.1-5-1(b).

The taxpayer did not dispute that she was a party responsible for remittance of corporate sales taxes to the state for the period ending November 13, 2000. On that date, the taxpayer sold her interest in the corporation.. The taxpayer sustained her burden of proving that she was not personally responsible for the corporate sales taxes after November 13, 2000.

FINDING

The taxpayer's protest is sustained as to all tax periods after November 13, 2000.
