
TITLE 327 WATER POLLUTION CONTROL BOARDSECOND NOTICE OF COMMENT PERIOD

LSA Document #09-213

DEVELOPMENT OF NEW RULES AT 327 IAC 15-16 CONCERNING CONCENTRATED ANIMAL FEEDING OPERATIONSPURPOSE OF NOTICE

The Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM) has developed draft rule language for a new rule at 327 IAC 15-16 concerning concentrated animal feeding operations (CAFO). By this notice, IDEM is soliciting public comment on the draft rule language. IDEM seeks comment on the affected citations listed and any other provisions of Title 327 that may be affected by this rulemaking.

HISTORY

First Notice of Comment Period: April 8, 2009, Indiana Register (20090408-IR-327090213FNA).

CITATIONS AFFECTED: 327 IAC 5-4-3; 327 IAC 5-4-3.1; 327 IAC 15-15; 327 IAC 16.

AUTHORITY: IC 13-14-8; IC 13-18-10; IC 13-18-20.

SUBJECT MATTER AND BASIC PURPOSE OF RULEMAKINGBasic Purpose and Background

The EPA began regulating discharges of wastewater and manure from CAFOs in the 1970s. The EPA initially issued national effluent limitations guidelines and standards for feedlots on February 14, 1974 (39 FR 5704), and National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) CAFO regulations on March 18, 1976 (41 FR 11,458). In February 2003, EPA issued revisions to these regulations that focused on the 5% of the nation's animal feeding operations (AFOs) that presented the highest risk of impairing water quality and public health (68 FR 7176–7274; February 12, 2003) (the 2003 CAFO rule). The 2003 CAFO rule required the owners or operators of all CAFOs to seek coverage under an NPDES permit, unless they demonstrated no potential to discharge.

A number of CAFO industry and several environmental groups filed petitions for judicial review of certain aspects of the 2003 CAFO rule. This case was brought before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. On February 28, 2005, the court ruled on these petitions and upheld most provisions of the 2003 rule but vacated and remanded others. Waterkeeper Alliance, et al. v. EPA, 399 F.3d 486 (2d Cir. 2005).

The CAFO industry organizations argued that EPA exceeded its statutory authority by requiring all CAFOs to either apply for NPDES permits or demonstrate that they have no potential to discharge. The court agreed with the CAFO industry petitioners on this issue and therefore vacated the "duty to apply" provision of the 2003 CAFO rule and ordered EPA to revise the "duty to apply" to include only CAFOs that discharge or propose to discharge. The court also made several other rulings relative to nutrient management plans. On November 20, 2008, EPA published rules to integrate all of the changes ordered by the court. IDEM is now proposing to incorporate the new federal rules by reference in a new rule at 327 IAC 15-16 that would replace existing rules that IDEM proposed to amend in the first notice of this rulemaking, published on April 8, 2009.

Due to the impact of deadlines in IDEM's rules on operations that would no longer have to comply with those deadlines under the revisions to the "duty to apply", IDEM is publishing a set of emergency rules in the Indiana Register that incorporates the revisions to the "duty to apply" ordered by the court. The current emergency rule can be found at the Indiana Register's website at DIN: 20100519-IR-327100334ERA.

This rulemaking is being done in conjunction with LSA Document #09-615. LSA Document #09-615 is updating the state confined feeding operations rule to encompass those CAFO farms that determine that they will not discharge or propose to discharge under the federal NPDES regulations. Additionally, all CAFOs are CFOs under Indiana law and must comply with the design and construction requirements under IC 13-18-10. These requirements are also being updated in the CFO rulemaking. IDEM is currently planning to have the same effective date for these two rules in order to ensure administrative consistency and, if applicable, a smooth transition from the NPDES permit program to a CFO approval. Once these two rules are effective, the emergency rule will be allowed to expire.

IDEM is also proposing to eliminate the currently existing CAFO NPDES permit rule at 327 IAC 5-4-3 and the "no potential to discharge" rule at 327 IAC 5-4-3.1 as well as the NPDES general permit at 327 IAC 15-15. The CAFO NPDES general permit was originally developed in an effort to issue a large number of NPDES permits in a relatively short time frame in response to a court order. Now that the NPDES program is well established, IDEM believes that individual NPDES permits for CAFOs within Indiana can better address the site-specific conditions and practices at each facility than the general permit.

IC 13-14-9-4 Identification of Restrictions and Requirements Not Imposed under Federal Law

No element of the draft rule imposes either a restriction or a requirement on persons to whom the draft rule applies that is not imposed under federal law or current state law.

Potential Fiscal Impact

The proposed rule incorporates federal rules by reference or implements current state law and adds rules on design and construction requirements for CAFOs. Any CAFO owner or operator who chooses to self-certify that they do not propose to discharge will then be regulated as a CFO in the state of Indiana. Moving from the NPDES permit program to a CFO approval will provide a cost savings in two areas:

- (1) A Soil Conservation Practice Plan (SCPP) will no longer be required.
- (2) Annual reports will no longer be required.

Producers will no longer have to spend man-hours preparing these reports, resulting in a cost savings.

Farms that choose to retain an NPDES permit will be subject to federal regulations and all expenses therein. The final 2008 NPDES CAFO rule is available at:
