DIGEST

Temporarily adds rules regarding immediate family members of certain occupational licensees. Statutory authority: IC 4-33-4. Effective September 20, 2011.

SECTION 1. The definitions in IC 4-33 and 68 IAC apply throughout this document.

SECTION 2. For purposes of this document, "promotion-related" means that a person is employed in one (1) of the following departments:

- (1) Information technology.
- (2) Marketing.
- (3) Promotions administration.
- (4) Surveillance
- (5) Any other department that the commission determines may affect the outcome of a promotional event.

SECTION 3. An immediate family member of a Level 1 or promotion-related Level 2 occupational licensee is not eligible to win a prize in a commission approved promotional event:

- (1) at the casino where the Level 1 or promotion-related Level 2 occupational licensee is employed; and
  - (2) if the dollar value of the prize to be awarded is more than one thousand dollars ($1000);
- unless the promotional event is a bona fide contest of skill judged by persons not affiliated with the casino licensee.

SECTION 4. (a) A casino licensee must take reasonable steps to prevent immediate family members of Level 1 and Level 2 occupational licensees employed at its casino from winning prizes in violation of this document.

(b) A casino licensee must not award any prize to an immediate family member of a Level 1 or Level 2 occupational licensee who wins a prize in violations of this document.

(c) A casino licensee must report to the commission any violation of this document as soon as the casino licensee becomes aware of the violation.
