IC 4-22-2.1-5 Statement Concerning Rules Affecting Small Businesses

IC 4-22-2.1-5(a) provides that an agency that intends to adopt a rule under IC 4-22-2 that will impose requirements or costs on small businesses must prepare a statement that describes the annual economic impact of the rule on small businesses after the rule is fully implemented as described in IC 4-22-2.1-5(b). That statement must be submitted to the Indiana Economic Development Corporation (IEDC). The IEDC is required to review the rule and submit written comments to the agency not later than seven days before the public hearing.

The Indiana Gaming Commission (Commission) proposes a rule that amends various sections of 68 IAC 21 to provide a framework for qualified charitable organizations conducting authorized charitable gaming activities in Indiana.

Estimated Number of Small Businesses Affected:

The proposed rule applies to qualified charitable organizations, not to a business entity.

Estimated Administrative Costs Imposed on Small Businesses:

Not applicable at this time.

Estimated Total Annual Economic Impact on Small Businesses:

Not applicable at this time.

Justification of Requirements or Costs:

The Commission has no justification of requirements or costs because there are none at this time.

Regulatory Flexibility Analysis:

The Commission does not propose an alternative regulatory method.
