

---

INDIANA EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES COMMISSION

Title: Interpretation of LSA Doc. #12-393(E), SECTION 31(b)(2), SECTION 52(b)(2), SECTION 58(c)(2), and 836 IAC 4-4-3\(b\)

Date: February 28, 2014

Purpose: To clarify that the six-month temporary certification or license, based on reciprocity, cannot be issued more than once.

Interpretation: The Emergency Medical Services Commission interprets these rules as follows:

Only one (1) six-month temporary certification or license is authorized under LSA Doc. #12-393(E), SECTION 31(b)(2), SECTION 52(b)(2), SECTION 58(c)(2), and 836 IAC 4-4-3\(b\). When that six-month temporary certification or license has expired, it is not renewable, nor can any other six-month temporary certification or license be issued based on the same certificate or license issued by another state.

Posted: 05/07/2014 by Legislative Services Agency
An html version of this document.