

Letter of Findings: 01-20181701
Individual Income Tax
For the Tax Year 2015

NOTICE: IC § 6-8.1-3-3.5 and IC § 4-22-7-7 require the publication of this document in the Indiana Register. This document provides the general public with information about the Department's official position concerning a specific set of facts and issues. This document is effective as of its date of publication and remains in effect until the date it is superseded or deleted by the publication of another document in the Indiana Register. The "Holding" section of this document is provided for the convenience of the reader and is not part of the analysis contained in this Letter of Findings.

HOLDING

Individuals failed to provide documentation supporting their position that the Department's proposed assessment of additional Indiana individual income tax was incorrect for the year at issue.

ISSUE

I. Income Tax-Burden of Proof Assessment Incorrect.

Taxpayers protest the imposition of additional Indiana individual income tax for tax year 2015.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Taxpayers filed their 2015 Indiana tax return on February 26, 2016. On their return, Taxpayers owed the Indiana Department of Revenue ("Department") approximately $200. Taxpayers remitted the amount due in March of 2016. In May of 2018, based on information from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), the Department adjusted Taxpayers' 2015 return which resulted in additional tax due. The Department issued Taxpayers a proposed assessment for the increase, plus penalty and interest. Taxpayers protested the assessment and waived their right to a hearing. Thus, this Letter of Findings is based on the information available to the Department and provided in Taxpayers' protest file. Additional facts will be provided as necessary.

I. Income Tax-Burden of Proof Assessment Incorrect.

DISCUSSION

Due to an adjustment to Taxpayers' 2015 Federal income tax return, the Department adjusted Taxpayers' Indiana 2015 tax return, resulting in an increase to Taxpayers' tax liability. The Department assessed Taxpayers for the increase plus penalty and interest. Taxpayers protested the assessment but waived their right to a hearing.

As a threshold issue, all tax assessments are prima facie evidence that the Department's claim for unpaid tax is valid; the taxpayer bears the burden of proving that any assessment is incorrect. IC § 6-8.1-5-1(c); Indiana Dep't. of State Revenue v. Rent-A-Center East, Inc., 963 N.E.2d 463, 466 (Ind. 2011); Lafayette Square Amoco, Inc. v. Indiana Dept. of State Revenue, 867 N.E.2d 289, 292 (Ind. Tax Ct. 2007). Consequently, the taxpayer is required to provide documentation explaining and supporting its challenge that the Department's position is wrong. Poorly developed and non-cogent arguments are subject to waiver. Scopelite v. Indiana Dep't of Local Gov't Fin., 939 N.E.2d 1138, 1145 (Ind. Tax Ct. 2010); Wendt LLP v. Indiana Dep't of State Revenue, 977 N.E.2d 480, 486 n.9 (Ind. Tax Ct. 2011).

Indiana imposes an adjusted gross income tax on all residents. IC § 6-3-2-1(a). A taxpayer's Indiana income is determined by starting with the federal adjusted gross income and making certain adjustments. IC § 6-3-1-3.5(a). IC § 6-3-2-2(a) specifically outlines what is income derived from Indiana sources and subject to Indiana income tax. For Indiana income tax purposes, the presumption is that taxpayers properly and correctly file their federal income tax returns as required pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. Thus, to efficiently and effectively compute what is considered the taxpayer's Indiana income tax, the Indiana statute refers to the Internal Revenue Code. IC § 6-3-1-3.5(a) provides the starting point to determine the taxpayer's taxable income and to calculate what would be their Indiana income tax after applying certain additions and subtractions to that starting point.

In May of 2018 the Department adjusted Taxpayers' 2015 Indiana income tax return based on information it received from the IRS. The Department then issued Taxpayers a proposed assessment as a result of the adjustment. Taxpayers protested the assessment stating that there was "no explanation of how the amount owed . . . was calculated." Taxpayers also submitted a "Protest Submission Form" in which they opted to forgo an administrative hearing.

The Department reviewed Taxpayers' protest and in a letter to Taxpayers dated July 26, 2018, informed Taxpayers that the assessment "is the result of a discrepancy between your Federal Adjusted Gross Income . . . amount compared to the amount indicated on line [one] of your Indiana state return." The letter went on to state that if Taxpayers disagree with the adjustment, they should provide a copy of their Federal Record of Account to the Department by August 27, 2018. The Department's letter provided two means through which Taxpayers could obtain their Federal Record of Account.

On August 10, 2018, Taxpayers provided the Department with a copy of their 2015 Federal Tax Return Transcript, which is different from the Federal Record of Account. Taxpayers included a letter with their transcript indicating that they had yet to receive "supporting documentation [or] a side-by-side explanation as to what was submitted [versus] what was corrected." Taxpayers further asked "to see the calculations and figures this assessment is based on." The Department responded to Taxpayers in a letter dated September 4, 2018. In this letter the Department explained to Taxpayers that they provided the wrong report and again gave Taxpayers two methods through which to obtain their Federal Record of Account. The Department asked that this documentation be provided by September 18, 2018. As of the date of this Letter of Findings, that documentation has not been provided.

As stated above, it is the Taxpayers' burden to prove that the Department's assessment is incorrect. In doing so, Taxpayers are required to provide documentation to support their position. In this instance, the Department informed Taxpayers that the documentation they needed to provide was their 2015 Federal Record of Account. Taxpayers failed to provide this documentation. Without Taxpayers' Federal Record of Account, the Department cannot begin to determine whether or not Taxpayers' original return was correct, as argued by the Taxpayers. Thus, Taxpayers have failed to meet their burden under IC § 6-8.1-5-1(c). Taxpayers' protest is denied.

FINDING

Taxpayers' protest is denied.
