Taxpayer protests the imposition of Indiana individual income tax for tax year 2015.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Taxpayer filed his 2015 Indiana tax return on April 10, 2016. On his return, Taxpayer owed the Indiana Department of Revenue ("Department") less than $10. Taxpayer remitted the amount due at the same time he filed his 2015 Indiana tax return. In May of 2018, based on information from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), the Department adjusted Taxpayer's 2015 return which resulted in additional tax due. The Department issued Taxpayer a proposed assessment for the increase, plus penalty and interest. Taxpayer protested the assessment and waived his right to a hearing. Thus, this Letter of Findings is based on the information available to the Department and provided in Taxpayer's protest file. Additional facts will be provided as necessary.

I. Income Tax–Burden of Proof Assessment Incorrect.

DISCUSSION

Due to an adjustment to Taxpayer's 2015 Federal income tax return, the Department adjusted Taxpayer's Indiana 2015 tax return, resulting in an increase to Taxpayer's tax liability. The Department assessed Taxpayer for the increase plus penalty and interest. Taxpayer protested the assessment but waived his right to a hearing.

As a threshold issue, all tax assessments are prima facie evidence that the Department's claim for unpaid tax is valid; the taxpayer bears the burden of proving that any assessment is incorrect. IC § 6-8.1-5-1(c); Indiana Dep't. of State Revenue v. Rent-A-Center East, Inc., 963 N.E.2d 463, 466 (Ind. 2011); Lafayette Square Amoco, Inc. v. Indiana Dep't. of State Revenue, 867 N.E.2d 289, 292 (Ind. Tax Ct. 2007). Consequently, the taxpayer is required to provide documentation explaining and supporting its challenge that the Department's position is wrong. Poorly developed and non-cogent arguments are subject to waiver. Scopelite v. Indiana Dep't of Local Gov't Fin., 939 N.E.2d 1138, 1145 (Ind. Tax Ct. 2010); Wendt LLP v. Indiana Dep't of State Revenue, 977 N.E.2d 480, 486 n.9 (Ind. Tax Ct. 2011).

Indiana imposes an adjusted gross income tax on all residents. IC § 6-3-2-1(a). A taxpayer's Indiana income is determined by starting with the federal adjusted gross income and making certain adjustments. IC § 6-3-1-3.5(a). IC § 6-3-2-2(a) specifically outlines what is income derived from Indiana sources and subject to Indiana income tax. For Indiana income tax purposes, the presumption is that taxpayers properly and correctly file their federal income tax returns as required pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. Thus, to efficiently and effectively compute what is considered the taxpayer's Indiana income tax, the Indiana statute refers to the Internal Revenue Code. IC § 6-3-1-3.5(a) provides the starting point to determine the taxpayer's taxable income and to calculate what would be their Indiana income tax after applying certain additions and subtractions to that starting point.

In May of 2018 the Department adjusted Taxpayer's 2015 Indiana income tax return based on information it received from the IRS. The Department then issued Taxpayer a proposed assessment as a result of the adjustment. Taxpayer protested the assessment and provided copies of his 2015 Indiana individual income tax return, W-2s, and other relevant tax forms. Taxpayer also submitted a "Protest Submission Form" in which he opted to forgo an administrative hearing. In his protest letter, Taxpayer stated that he "could not find a mistake on [his] 2015 [Indiana individual tax return]" and that he believed that the Department's "figures were incorrect."

The Department reviewed Taxpayer's protest and in a letter to Taxpayer dated August 1, 2018, informed Taxpayer that the assessment "is the result of a discrepancy between your Federal Adjusted Gross Income . . . amount compared to the amount indicated on line [one] of your Indiana state return." The letter went on to state that if Taxpayer disagrees with the adjustment, he should provide a copy of his Federal Record of Account to the Department by August 31, 2018. The Department's letter also provided two means through which Taxpayer could obtain his Federal Record of Account. Taxpayer has failed to provide this documentation.

As stated above, it is the Taxpayer's burden to prove that the Department's assessment is incorrect. In doing so, a taxpayer is required to provide documentation to support his position. Without Taxpayer's Federal Record of Account, the Department cannot begin to determine whether or not Taxpayer's original return was correct, as argued by Taxpayer. Thus, Taxpayer has failed to meet his burden under IC § 6-8.1-5-1(c). Taxpayer's protest is denied.

FINDING

Taxpayer's protest is denied.
