A commission license does not create a property right, but is a privilege contingent upon continuing compliance and suitability for licensure.

(b) In addition to the grounds for penalties listed in IC 4-32.3-8-1, the commission may initiate an investigation or a disciplinary action, or both, against a qualified organization, a manufacturer, a distributor, or an individual, if the commission has reason to believe the qualified organization, manufacturer, distributor, or individual:

- (1) has violated a statute, regulation, local ordinance, or other law providing for the best interests of charity gaming; or
- (2) owes license fees.

(c) The commission shall pursue a disciplinary action against a qualified organization, a manufacturer, a distributor, or an individual in accordance with the procedures in 68 IAC 13, except any provision therein that is inapplicable to charity gaming.

(d) For purposes of the initiation of an investigation or a disciplinary action under this document or 68 IAC 21, the commission may consider the relevant activities of an organization prior to any reorganization conducted under IC 4-32.3-2-31(a)(1)(B)(iii).

(e) If the commission revokes a license of a qualified organization, manufacturer, or distributor, then the commission may publish notice of the revocation in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the qualified organization is located and in the county where the allowable activity was conducted.

- (1) the qualified organization's total gross revenue from allowable events conducted under the two (2) year casino gaming license in the year prior to the annual anniversary date of the issuance of the two (2) year casino gaming license; minus
- (2) the sum of any amounts deducted under IC 4-32.3-5-3\(b\)\(5\) with respect to the allowable events described in subdivision (1) in the year prior to the annual anniversary date of the issuance of the two (2) year casino gaming license.

(c) A qualified organization shall pay an annual fee determined under this SECTION before the annual anniversary date of the issuance of the two (2) year annual casino night license issued under IC 4-32.3-4-5.5. The annual fee that is charged to a qualified organization holding a two (2) year annual casino night license issued under IC 4-32.3-4-5.5 is equal to the amount determined according to the fee schedule described in IC 4-32.3-6-7.5 using the adjusted gross revenue of the qualified organization as specified by subsection (b).
