ARTICLE 7. PAWNBROKING

Rule 1. General Provisions

750 IAC 7-1-1 Books and records; bills of sale (Voided)

Sec. 1. (Voided by P.L.14-1992, SECTION 166, effective July 1, 1992.)

750 IAC 7-1-2 Advertising materials; retention; examination

Authority: IC 28-7-5-12 Affected: IC 28-7-5-18

Sec. 2. Advertising. Each licensee shall retain for a period of not less than fourteen (14) months from the date of use, with the date of such use indicated thereon, identical copy of all advertising material, including radio script, which has been printed, displayed, published, distributed or broadcast by such licensee, available for examination by representatives of the Department at any time; Provided, however, the licensee may dispose of said advertising after an examination. Licensee holding more than one license may designate one office located in Indiana as the repository for such records.

COMMENT

The laws of the State of Indiana are sufficient to control the advertising of a licensee. In determining what advertising is false, what is misleading, and what is calculated to deceive, the advertisement must be considered with the surrounding facts and circumstances, and the representatives of the Department are instructed to examine the advertising of each licensee, giving consideration to the facts and circumstances under which such advertising is done, and giving consideration, among other things, to statements which are ambiguous or incomplete. Such representatives shall report to the Department such advertising by a licensee which in their opinion violates the provisions of the statute. #### INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING PAWNBROKING REPORT

dd Prepare Pawnbroking Report

The pawnbroking report must be prepared by all persons, partnerships, or companies licensed to do a pawnbroking business in Indiana (Section 17, Pawnbroking Law). Any person, partnership, or company having both a small loan license and a pawnbroking license will be required to file a small loan annual report and a pawnbroking annual report on the forms provided by this Department.

When and to Whom Report Should Be Made

Pawnbroking report must be filed with The Department of Financial Institutions (Division of Small Loans and Consumer Credit) not later than March 15 (Section 17, Pawnbroking Law). However, in order to allow time for correction in case of incomplete or incorrect reports, licensees are advised to file their reports as soon as possible after December 31.

Period to Be Covered By Report

Schedule B, Column I (Items 10 to 24) should show the financial statement of condition of the entire company as of December 31 of present year. Schedule B, Column II (Items 10 to 24) should show the financial statement of condition of the entire company as of December 31 of the previous year.

The first part of Schedule C (Items 25 to 41) should cover the period from January 1 to December 31 of the present year.

SCHEDULE A

Under Item 6, answer "lawful rate" if all pledge loans made during the year carried the maximum rate of interest allowed by law. If all pledge loans made during the year did not carry the maximum rate allowed by law at the time the loans were made, attach a schedule of the actual rates charged, showing the period of time during which the reduced rates were in effect and the size of pledge loans to which such rates were applicable.

Item 8: Your books are on a cash basis if they show only money actually received and expended during the year. Your books are on an accrual basis if they show receipts and expenses, earned or incurred, during the year whether or not actually received

SCHEDULE B

Schedule B should be a balance sheet showing all assets and liabilities of the entire company in the proper classifications. The first section of Schedule B (Items 10 to 16) should include all the assets employed in carrying on the licensee's business or businesses. If the schedule does not show all the headings applicable to the business, insert the additional headings under Item 15.

Item 15.

Pledge or Pawn loans should be shown under Item 11. Any other loans made by the company, such as "loans of $500 or less made under the Small Loan Act," or "straight eight per cent loans, etc." should be shown under Item 12.

The second section of Schedule B (Items 17 to 24) should include all the outstanding liabilities and capital of the company under the proper headings. Show properly captioned under Item 20 any liability items not provided in the schedules.

Include under Item 19 (Pietgors Surplus Account) all amounts owed to piedgors from the public auction sale of piedged articles as provided by Section 31 of the Pawnbroking Law.

The amount shown under Item 24 must agree with the amount shown under Item 16.

If the licensee is a corporation, Item 21 will be disregarded. If the licensee is a partnership or individual, Items 22 and 23 will be disregarded.

SCHEDULE C

Enter under Gross Earnings (Items 25 to 30) all carnings from the entire company under the proper classifications. Income, pred under Item 29, must be itemized. If sufficient space is not provided, a separate schedule of other income should be attached

Under Items 31 to 40 enumerate all expenses of carrying on the business or businesses of the entire company. Expense listed under Item 39 must be itemized.

In instances where Item 40 exceeds Item 30, then Item 41 will indicate a loss and should be so shown.

Items 42 to 50 should show the distribution of earnings of the entire company and also all other transactions during the year that affect surplus or net worth. Items 45 and 49 must be itemized. If the licensee is a corporation, Items 44 and 47 will disregarded In the case of corporations. Items 42 and 50 are the same as Item 23, Column II, Schedule B and Item 23, Column
I, Schedule B, respectively, and, therefore, must agree
