(4) An official transcript from each institution of higher education attended.

(5) Any required evidence of the applicant's criminal history, including fingerprints and the applicant's Social Security number.

(6) Passing scores on any assessments, if applicable. Each applicant shall request that the testing service send the official score report to the board. and

(7) If the applicant has teaching, administration, or school services experience, he/she must provide verification of the experience, including the grade level and subject taught, dates of employment, and the accreditation status of the school(s) where the applicant completed his/her teaching experience.

(Advisory Board of the Division of Professional Standards; 515 IAC 9-1-6; filed Dec 4, 2003, 3:00 p.m.: 27 IR 1171)

515 IAC 9-1-7 Out-of-state teacher applicants; initial practitioner license

Authority: IC 20-28-2-6

Affected: IC 20-28

Sec. 7. (a) An out-of-state applicant is eligible for an initial practitioner license if he/she meets the requirements for a license and either:

(1) holds a currently valid license and a baccalaureate degree from an approved teacher education program located in a state that is a member of the Interstate Compact Agreement; or

(2) verifies completion of a baccalaureate teacher education program accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The institution must have been accredited by NCATE at the time the person completed the approved program.

(b) A graduate of an NCATE-approved teacher education program is eligible for an Indiana initial practitioner license in the applicant's content area if that content area is also offered in Indiana. The board may require the completion of the NCATE recommendation form by an authorized licensing official of the degree-granting institution for clarification.

(c) A graduate of an approved teacher education program in an Interstate Compact Agreement state must hold a certificate of eligibility or a currently valid teaching license from the compact state that is equivalent to an Indiana initial practitioner license. The board may require the completion of the Interstate Compact Agreement recommendation form by an authorized licensing official of the degree-granting institution for clarification.

(d) An individual qualifying under subsection (b) or (c) will receive licensing in all content areas shown on the valid compact state teaching license if the areas of licensing are comparable to Indiana content areas, providing all minimum requirements have been met.

(e) A graduate of an institution not located within a compact state is eligible for an Indiana initial or proficient practitioner license in the content area(s) and school settings(s) [sic.] listed on the valid out-of-state license if he or she holds a currently valid instructional, administration, or school services license from that state and has met all minimum requirements. (Advisory Board of the Division of Professional Standards; 515 IAC 9-1-7; filed Dec 4, 2003, 3:00 p.m.: 27 IR 1171)

515 IAC 9-1-8 Out-of-state teacher applicants; reciprocal permit

Authority: IC 20-28-2-6

Affected: IC 20-28

Sec. 8. (a) An out-of-state applicant is eligible for an Indiana reciprocal permit if he or she holds a license or certificate of eligibility issued by another state and has met all requirements of a teacher education program at an institution approved by the board and a currently valid out-of-state teaching license that is comparable to an Indiana instructional license but do not qualify for an Indiana initial or proficient practitioner license.

(b) A reciprocal permit will be issued to a graduate of an accredited institution located in a state other than Indiana who has met all of the requirements for an initial or proficient practitioner instructional license except for the proficiency exam and some of the course work. A reciprocal permit will be issued only in the content areas of the out-of-state license that are equivalent to Indiana content areas and the school settings of the out-of-state license that are equivalent to Indiana school settings.

(c) An initial practitioner license will be issued when all course work and proficiency examination deficiencies have been corrected, if the applicant has not met the requirements for a proficient practitioner license.

(d) A proficient practitioner teaching license will be issued when all course work and proficiency examination deficiencies have been corrected, if the applicant has met all requirements of performance-based assessment or can verify three (3) years of full-time teaching experience appropriate to the license in an accredited P-12 school under a valid license.

(e) A reciprocal permit is valid for one (1) year and may be renewed up to four (4) times. A reciprocal permit holder may renew the license after the first year by correcting all proficiency exam deficiencies and earning six (6) semester hours of course work or equivalent appropriate progress toward an initial or proficient practitioner license. Any subsequent renewal requires the completion of six (6) semester hours of course work or equivalent appropriate progress toward an initial or proficient practitioner license. (Advisory Board of the Division of Professional Standards; 515 IAC 9-1-8; filed Dec 4, 2003, 3:00 p.m.: 27 IR 1171)

515 IAC 9-1-16 Creditable experience for licensing

Authority: IC 20-28-2-6

Affected: IC 20-28-2; IC 20-28-6-6

Sec. 16. (a) The following teaching experiences shall be recognized as acceptable activities in computing experience required for licensing:

(1) Experience in any Indiana school that was certified, accredited, or commissioned by the division of performance-based accreditation of the state board of education during the time such experience was acquired.

(2) Experience in a school outside Indiana but within the United States, Commonwealth of the United States, or Canadian provinces if such school was certified, accredited, commissioned, or equally recognized by the duly authorized agency of the state during the time such experience was acquired.

(3) Experience in a school maintained by the United States government for children of military personnel and other governmental employees either in the United States or in a foreign country.

(4) Teaching experience as a Peace Corps volunteer.

(5) Employment for a period of sixty (60) days or more under a temporary contract under IC 20-6.1-4-7 or equivalent out-of-state experience as defined by the board.

(b) Responsibility for verifying any experience to be credited will rest with the employing school superintendent or authorized official of the federal or state department or agency.

(c) The minimum amount of service to be counted as one (1) year of creditable experience shall be the equivalent of one hundred twenty (120) full days acquired during the regular school calendar. A half-year shall be credited for service equivalent to sixty (60) full days, or more, but less than one hundred twenty (120), acquired during the regular school calendar. Two (2) half-years of credit may be combined for credit not to exceed one (1) year. No more than one (1) year of creditable service shall be granted for services rendered within a twelve (12) month period beginning July 1st and ending June 30th.

(d) Active military experience shall qualify the holder of the proficient practitioner license for extended validation of said license for a period equivalent to the time spent in active duty military service and not exceeding two (2) years providing the military service occurred during the validation period of the initial, proficient, or accomplished practitioner license. Copies of military discharge papers must be submitted to the board to qualify for this extended validation. (Advisory Board of the Division of Professional Standards; 515 IAC 9-1-16; filed Dec 4, 2003, 3:00 p.m.: 27 IR 1174)

515 IAC 9-1-17 Field experience requirements; exemptions

Authority: IC 20-28-2-6

Affected: IC 20-28

Sec. 17. Field experience. (a) Those persons with three (3) years of full-time teaching experience may be exempt from field experience requirements provided such experience has been at the appropriate grade level and in the area of licensing desired, and the candidate has met the total requirement for professional education, including the recommendation of the institution of higher education in Indiana where the program has been/is being completed.

(b) All other candidates shall have their eligibility determined by the staff of the board.

(c) Field experience must be satisfactorily completed at the school setting accredited by the state or at an equally recognized school in an out-of-state setting.

(d) The Indiana proficient practitioner license qualifies the holder to serve as a supervising teacher in all content areas and school settings designated on the license. The final selection of the supervising teacher meeting these qualifications shall be the joint responsibility of the teacher education institution and the superintendent of the cooperating state-commissioned school and with the approval of the supervising teacher. (Advisory Board of the Division of Professional Standards; 515 IAC 9-1-17; filed Dec 4, 2003, 3:00 p.m.: 27 IR 1174)

515 IAC 9-1-18 License revocation, suspension, surrender; authority; grounds; procedures

Authority: IC 20-28-2-6

Affected: IC 4-21.5-3; IC 20-28-2; IC 20-28-7-7

Sec. 18. (a) The board may, on the written recommendation of the superintendent of public instruction, revoke or suspend any license issued by the board under 515 IAC 1-1 or this rule or under prior rules and regulations governing teacher education and licensing.

(b) A license may be revoked or suspended for immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, or willful neglect of duty. The grounds of these charges may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The person to whom the license was issued obtained the license by material misrepresentation or fraudulent means.

(2) The person to whom the license was issued has had a license revoked or suspended in another state.

(3) The person to whom the license was issued has been convicted of a misdemeanor or a felony which directly relates to the ability to perform the person's teaching duties. Offenses which constitute a violation under this subsection may include crimes of moral turpitude, drug-related offenses, or the issuing of false statements.

(4) The person to whom the license was issued is subject to license suspension under IC 20-28-7-7.

(c) The board may suspend a license under the provisions of this section for a period of time not to exceed two (2) years calculated from the date of imposition. At the conclusion of any suspension period imposed by the board, the license shall be reinstated upon written request of the license holder.

(d) The validity period of a license shall not be extended, and any renewal or professionalization requirements shall not be waived at the time of reinstatement of a license suspended under subsection (c), revoked under subsection (e), or surrendered under subsection (f).

(e) The board may revoke a license under this section for an indeterminate period of time; provided, however, that the person suffering the revocation may petition the board for reinstatement at any time subsequent to the passage of two (2) years calculated from the date of revocation.

(f) A license surrendered to the board pursuant to a plea agreement, probation agreement, sentencing agreement, or sentence or to avoid legal action will be treated as a revoked license. The holder of the license may petition the board for reinstatement of the license at any time subsequent to the passage of two (2) years calculated from the date the surrender was accepted by the board, providing the petition for reinstatement is not in violation of any court order or court-approved agreement.

(g) If, prior to seeking an initial teaching license or the renewal of a teaching license, an applicant has committed an act for which a teaching license may be suspended or revoked, the application may be denied on that basis. The applicant may petition for administrative review of that denial as allowed by IC 4-21.5-3 in which case a hearing, known as a fitness hearing, will be held to determine the applicant's fitness to hold a teaching license. If such a petition for review is filed, the final decision regarding the application will be based on the outcome of the fitness hearing.

(h) An individual who petitions the board for reinstatement of a revoked or surrendered license and an individual required to participate in a fitness hearing under subsection (g) before receiving an initial license shall have the burden of proving fitness to hold a license. In making a determination of fitness, the board shall consider the following factors:

(1) The likelihood the conduct or offense adversely affected, or would affect, students or fellow teachers, and the degree of adversity anticipated.

(2) The proximity or remoteness in time of the conduct or offense.

(3) The type of teaching credential held or sought by the individual.

(4) Extenuating or aggravating circumstances surrounding the conduct or offense.

(5) The likelihood of recurrence of the conduct or offense.

(6) The extent to which a decision not to issue the license would have a chilling effect on the individual's constitutional rights or the rights of other teachers.

(7) Evidence of rehabilitation, such as participation in counseling, self-help support groups, community service, gainful employment subsequent to the conduct or offense, and family and community support.

(i) IC 4-21.5-3 shall govern the following proceedings:

(1) A hearing on the suspension of a license under subsection (c).

(2) A hearing on the revocation of a license under subsection (e).

(3) A reinstatement hearing under subsection (e).

(4) A reinstatement hearing under subsection (f).

(5) A fitness hearing under subsection (g).

(j) The sanctions provided for under this section are intended to be remedial rather than punitive.

(k) Any proceeding under subsection (i) may be conducted by the board or, at its discretion, by an administrative law judge.
